MYSTERY VEILS DEATH OF UNIDENTIFIED WOMAN

Takes Poison and Dies in the Hospital

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE)
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—A woman, all to the central emergency hospital took Steward O. Dea, with an ambulance to 1441 Sutter street at 8:15 this morning where several excited lodgers turned over to him an unknown woman, who was said to have taken chloroform in an effort to kill herself.
Ten minutes after she had been placed on the operating table she expired, and considerable mystery surrounds her identity. The vital supposed to have contained chloroform is believed to have been filled with some other drug, and the people at the Sutter street house seem to know little about the woman.
It appears that a Mrs. Baldwin, who is proprietress of the place, took the woman in out of compassion for her. She was about fifty years of age and appears to have been in good circumstances.

MUSHROOMS MAKE COUPLE ILL; HUBBY IS ARRESTED

Faints on Street; Accused of Being Drunk

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE)
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—In an agony of suspense lest his wife, whom he had left gravely ill should become worse and even die because of the lack of medical attention, Pierre Chenot, a Frenchman, walked up and down in his cell at the city prison all last night, tearing at the bars and making frantic effort to make known his situation to his jailers.
It came about through some mishaps which the Chenots had suffered for their supper. Yesterday afternoon Chenot and his wife gathered in a secluded portion of Golden Gate Park. They took their home and cooked the dinner as they had done many times before. About 9 o'clock Mrs. Chenot began to feel ill, but thought little of it and retired to her room. Some time later the husband began to feel ill, and at 11 o'clock, seeing that his wife had grown worse and feeling that himself was rapidly becoming unconscious, he left the house in search of a physician.
After going a few steps he fell fainting, to the sidewalk at the corner of Post and Franklin streets, and was later picked up by Policeman J. P. Collins, who believed that he had run across a drunk and booked him at the city prison on that charge.
The incidents of the arrest and the imprisonment behind the bars served to restore Chenot sufficiently to make him grasp the situation. He realized that while he felt a little better his wife, who had eaten many more mushrooms than himself, might be dying, and he made every effort to tell his jailers in broken English the situation. The more he tried, however, so much the more excited he became and in his frenzy he was able to think of but few English words.
The prison keeper was busy and had little time to listen to the Frenchman's story. At 8 o'clock this morning Chenot was released and immediately hurried to his home to find his wife much better.

WORK ON $2,000,000 BANKERS' HOTEL BEGINS

Work was commenced this morning on the Bankers' Hotel, Thirteenth and Alice streets, with twenty-five men who are to complete the building in fifty days. The dimensions of the building are 8,000 feet. Work on the building will be extremely rapid, it was stated by J. R. Sorensen, the contractor.
The building, which will cost $2,000,000, will be classed "A" in every detail. Walter Matthews, the architect, has designed the Bankers' Hotel, which will be one of the most modern buildings in the West. It is being built by the Oakland Hotel Company and will be completed in a year.

RUEF LAWYER VOWS DUNNE 'FIRED' HIM FROM COURT

Claims That Judge Told Him to 'Get Out'

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—Superior Judge Lawrence Dunne, when approached for a statement about what transpired at the alleged midnight meeting when Ruef was given his assurance that he would allow Ruef to withdraw his plea of insanity, today ordered Frank J. Murphy, associate counsel for Ruef, from the courtroom.
The incident occurred just after the adjournment of Judge Lawrence's court. According to Murphy's statement, he went into Judge Dunne's chamber for an affidavit and was told to "get out."
According to Dunne's statement, he declared "I don't want to speak to you." Murphy declared that he would make an affidavit of what transpired between himself and Judge Dunne and filed it with Judge Lawrence.

Suffragettes Go to Jail for 6 Weeks

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Feb. 14.—Mrs. Parkhurst, the leader of the women suffragettes, and the other delegates of the organization who were arrested yesterday when they attempted to make a demonstration in the House of Commons all went to jail today for six weeks rather than give surrenders for their good behavior.

MET TRICKERY IN ALL WHOM HE TRUSTED, HE SAYS

'WILL KILL VIOLATOR OF CONTRACT,' SAID BURNS

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—With tears in his eyes, visibly agitated and having frequent recourse to his handkerchief, Abraham Ruef today sat in the Superior Court before Judge Lawrence and listened to the reading of affidavits by his father and sister in which they told of their agony of mind and suffering and how they begged the son and brother to save himself by complying with the demands of the prosecution "to tell all he knew" upon the latter's "most positive assurance" and "pledges of sacred word of honor" that he would be given full and complete immunity.
Henry Ach first read Ruef's own supplementary affidavit. When Ach came to that part of the affidavit where his father related how the Rev. Jacob Nieto pictured to him the dangers in which his son was "hounded by the press and the prosecution" and where the sister told of how frequently she fainted and the sufferings of the aged mother, Ruef became much agitated, gum nervously and repeatedly pulled his handkerchief to his eyes.
The affidavit was supplementary to one made by Ruef last week. It tells how pressure was brought upon him by the prosecution through his mother and sister and the Rev. Jacob Nieto and the Rev. Bernard Kaplan, all of whom besides District Attorney Langdon, Francis J. Heney and Special Agent W. J. Burns, urged him to testify before the grand jury "for the good of the community," and how Ruef finally, upon the most positive assurances and guarantee of immunity and the permission to withdraw his plea of guilty went before the grand jury and testified.

Would Kill Violator.

Ruef alleges in his affidavit that Special Agent Burns and Elmer W. J. Biggs went so far in their assertions to assure him that the prosecution would carry out its agreement, and that they declared "they would kill anyone a party to the contract who would violate any part of the agreement."

Affidavits by Ruef's father and sister were also read. They substantiated and corroborated Ruef in his statements that the prosecution had urged them to get Ruef to tell all he knew and that the most positive and solemn assurances were given them that if he would do so that he would be given full immunity and not be prosecuted on any of the many indictments.

Henrietta Stittfield, Ruef's sister, stated that Burns represented to her that her brother would get life imprisonment, which would kill his old parents, "if he did not comply with the demand to tell all he knew, that if he did comply it would restore him to us and to liberty and give him a chance to resume his place among his friends and fellow citizens with every opportunity to redeem himself," that Burns gave "his sacred word of honor as a man" that her brother would go free, that Burns said "Henry would act toward him (Ruef) as his greatest friend," and that he (Burns) had had "come to like my brother as a man and greatly admired him and would be his friend."

Charge Tampering.

The reading of these affidavits by his attorneys, State Senator Geo. B. Keene and J. P. McQuinn, Oakland, was interrupted by the reading of a charge of tampering.

DETECTIVE AND PROSECUTOR GO TO BRING "BABY JOHN" AND MRS. MARTIN TO OAKLAND

DETECTIVE HODGKINS. DEPUTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY DONAHUE.

TOWN OF 500 POPULATION IS DESTROYED BY CYCLONE

FEAR THAT ALL THE RESIDENTS OF MOSSVILLE ARE DEAD

HATTIESBURG, Miss., Feb. 14.—Shortly after noon today a tornado traveling at a terrific rate passed over Jones county north of here. The whole town of Mossville, ten miles from Laurel, Miss., is reported blown away. All that is left is the depot. The town had a population of 500 people.
The noon northbound passenger train got a few miles north of Laurel and could not proceed because of the wreckage and returned at 2 o'clock. The passengers said they saw half a dozen dead negroes but could not estimate the probable number of killed. At Service, Miss., near Laurel, the home of the Holloway was blown away and two of his children killed.
DALLAS, Tex., Feb. 14.—Reports received here state that a tornado struck Taylor Texas early today. Several persons are reported killed.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT FAVORS HARRIMAN IN NEW ORDER

Need Not Tell the Commission of Stock Purchases

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Judge Hough in the United States Circuit Court today issued an order supplemental to the opinion of two weeks ago in the matter of the Interstate Commerce Commission's questions which E. H. Harriman and Otto Kuhn, of Kuhn, Loeb & Company refused to answer relative to dealings in Illinois Central, Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railroad stocks.
The order gives the questions which must be answered in detail but does not fix the time for the appearance of either man before the commission. Of the two questions which Harriman is not required to answer one relates to the purchase of stocks between July 19 and August 17 that may have appreciated in value. The other was whether Harriman or any of the directors of the Union Pacific bought stocks in anticipation of the dividend.

SAN FRANCISCO AROUSES ITSELF TO FIGHT DISEASE

Business Men Meet to Plan Campaign

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—Unless San Francisco rids itself of rats within the next sixty days a quarantine will be placed on the city by the various health authorities and probably by the Federal government. This quarantine is last until the rats are driven out and all danger from the plague eliminated.
At 10:30 o'clock this morning the railroad officials met at the Merchants' Exchange building, at 11 o'clock the clergyman met in the offices of the Chamber of Commerce at the same time the officials of the California and Geary street roads got together to discuss the plague, and at 2 p. m. the sub-committees of the citizens' health committee, which includes the best-known medical men in the West, reported at the Chamber of Commerce offices.
The merchants and the working men are thoroughly aroused to the situation and are working in concert to rid this city of the pests. The Merchants' Association, appreciating the necessity for prompt action and realizing that unless extreme measures are resorted to now the metropolis of the West will face a pest equal to any in history, is raising a fund of $100,000 to carry on a war of extermination.

MORE SENSATIONAL DEVELOPMENTS EXPECTED IN CASE

Woman Says She Wants to Tell Her Story to Oakland Authorities.

'Baby John' Martin will be brought back to Oakland by Chief Deputy District Attorney W. L. Donahue and Detective Hodgkins who started this afternoon for Weaverville. It is possible that Mrs. John Martin will be brought back with them also. This depends on the outcome of a consultation between the officials of this county and District Attorney Hall of Butte county.
What Baby John has to tell Donahue and Hodgkins will have much to do with what will be done with his mother. If Donahue and Hodgkins are convinced, after hearing his story and consulting with Hall that a good case can be made against the woman on the charge of trying to blow up the home of Judge Ogden, she will return with them and her son.
To Bring Back Boy.
The boy will come back in any event," said Donahue today before leaving. "He is needed here to help us in the case. As to whether or not Mrs. Martin will come back too will depend on the strength of the case against her here. District Attorney Hall seems to be willing to give us the right-of-way if we can make out a strong case against her for blowing up Judge Ogden's home."
Detective Hodgkins said before leaving that Baby John Martin would be brought back in the hope that the boy can point out the spot where he has said a quantity of dynamite is hidden. Should this dynamite be found it is held by the detective that the case against Mrs. Martin would be considerably strengthened.
Expects More Developments.
Should it be decided to bring Mrs. Martin to Oakland for trial, the charge of arson against her in Weaverville would be held in abeyance.
Detective Hodgkins is of the opinion that he will find much interesting work on his trip and feels that more sensational news is in store. Several prominent citizens have called at the district attorney's office and have urged him to do everything possible to have Mrs. Martin and Baby John taken over to the Alameda county authorities for trial. This is a quiet town and the notoriety is not relished by the people here. They have had more of the woman and her doings than they wish for and are anxious to have the theater of her future moved far away.
Mrs. Martin was told this morning of the coming of Donahue and Hodgkins, and said:
"I wish you would send them to me immediately upon their arrival. There are a number of things I wish to say to them that the people of Weaverville cannot understand. Too much belief has been given to the name of Baby John. But the people of Oakland know him and me and can better analyze his statements and mine. The result must be that I shall be cleared.
"As to going back to Oakland at once to face those who would charge me with dynamiting the home of Judge Ogden attempting to blow the same to the home of Judge Samuel, and also trying to burn the home of Abe Leach, I can only say that I don't care what course they decide upon. I am perfectly willing to go to Oakland at once and refute the slanders heaped upon me there but it seems to me that it would be simple justice to me to go on with

Mrs. Martin Asks to See Oakland Police

WEAVERVILLE, Feb. 14.—Information that Deputy District Attorney William L. Donahue and Detective St. Clair Hodgkins of Oakland are on their way here was received this morning, and District Attorney Hall expressed himself as well pleased. The news spread quickly and on all sides expressions of satisfaction were heard. Several prominent citizens have called at the district attorney's office and have urged him to do everything possible to have Mrs. Martin and Baby John taken over to the Alameda county authorities for trial. This is a quiet town and the notoriety is not relished by the people here. They have had more of the woman and her doings than they wish for and are anxious to have the theater of her future moved far away.

WOMEN UNFITTED FOR BALLOT, DECLARES WOMAN

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Mrs. Cora F. Trow caused a sensation at a meeting of the West End Women's Republican Club yesterday by stating that until women had learned how to hold legal elections in their own clubs they had no right to demand the ballot.

She said that women voted for the officers of their clubs because they liked the way a candidate dressed her hair or because they disliked the women who placed the opposition candidate in nomination. Women should study civics, she said, and become qualified to take part in the government of the country before they demand the right to vote.

REFUSE SOCIETY WOMAN PASS TO PHILIPPINES

MRS. YNEZ SHORB WHITE.

No U.S. Transport for Mrs. Y.S. White

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Though prominent in society, engaged to marry an army officer, and recognized as a California matron, Mrs. Ynez Shorb White has discovered that the United States government is totally oblivious to such qualifications. Her request for a pass to sail to Manila has been firmly refused here and the question has been passed on to Washington for settlement. Her wedding to Captain Carroll D. Buck is to take place during the latter part of April. Prior to sailing for the islands last June Captain Buck applied for a pass on which his bride-elect could travel to the Orient.

Owing to her prominent position in society circles here and the deference which her beauty commanded, Mrs. White had little doubt that the pass would be granted. Accordingly she made arrangements to sail on the transport Thomas. She learned yesterday that a government rule forbids all but men in the service and their dependents sailing at the expense of Uncle Sam.

Mrs. White was not a dependent, ergo, she could not be given a pass. Mrs. White insisted the quartermaster's department was firm. Mrs. White pointed out that she would soon be a dependent, the quartermaster's department contended that this made no difference.

The question was fought out here and finally sent to Washington for a decision. Indications are that the pass will not be granted and Mrs. White has made tentative arrangements to pay her passage and sail on the Siberia, which will leave here March 10.

CHRONIC STOMACH TROUBLE

A great many people who are suffering from indigestion are suffering unnecessarily. They can be cured.

Proper attention to the diet and the right remedy to tone up the weakened organs are all that is required.

The symptoms of stomach trouble vary. Some victims have a nervous appetite, some loathe the sight of food. Others have a feeling of weight on the chest, a full feeling in the throat. Sometimes the gas presses on the heart and leads the sufferer to think he has heart disease. Sick headache is a frequent and distressing symptom.

Miss Julia A. Van Sickle, of 724 No. Ninth street, Fort Dodge, Iowa, says: "Last winter I suffered from loss of appetite, general weakness and exhaustion. I had no desire for food of any kind. I had a nervous headache nearly every afternoon, especially when I began to get tired. My heart also troubled me—skipping a beat every once in a while."

"My father urged me to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as he thinks very highly of them. In a few days I saw they were helping me. My appetite returned and I have not been bothered by stomach trouble or nervousness since."

Sufferers from dyspepsia in any form who find their condition unrelieved or actually growing worse while using other remedies, would do well to try

THIEVES' VICTIMS ARE NUMEROUS

Long List of Burglaries and Petty Thefts Reported to the Police.

Another long list of burglaries and petty thefts were reported to the police this morning by victims whose losses will total over $1000. Frank A. Mergure, secretary of the California Door Company, 67 Thirty-first street, reported the loss of a quantity of jewelry and silverware valued at $800 from his home yesterday afternoon. The thieves ascertained that no one was at home by ringing the doorbell and then forced the rear door of the house. It is presumed by the police that the burglary was committed by the same man or men whose bold operations in daylight are causing much uneasiness to the detectives.

Gus Sampson of 513 1/2 Sixth street reports that the front window of his place of business was broken out last night and shoes valued at $18 stolen.

Elliot & Rehl 1012 Clay street, report the theft of four rots of butter, a side of bacon and a quantity of tobacco.

Moses C. Dunn, a lodger at the Wheeler-Will Mission, 365 Ninth street, reports that he was robbed of $19 last night.

W. M. Moore of 865 Thirty-sixth street was robbed last night of a hand cart and six dressed chickens.

Burglars last night stole a quantity of carpenter's tools from the workshop of W. H. Young at the Pacific Lumber Company Second and Grove streets.

Charles Miller of 31 East Twelfth street reports the theft of a diamond sunburst scarf pin.

BILL WILL ENLARGE CROPS, IS CLAIM SET FORTH

Proposed Measure Plans to Re-verse Present Agricultural Department System.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Representative Scott of Kansas, chairman of the house committee on Agriculture, has conceived a plan which he believes will enable the farmers of the country to produce better and in larger crops than heretofore. Scott's proposition involves the establishment of 100 experimental farms of one acre each in every county in a group of four Western agricultural States for the purpose of giving the farmers a practical demonstration of the best methods of growing different kinds of crops. It is proposed that the funds for this purpose shall be furnished by the farmers themselves and that they do the work of cultivation under the direction of the experts of the department of agriculture.

No additional appropriation from Congress will be required to test Scott's plan. It is explained as the agricultural department now has the requisite number of experts to carry out the plan. Scott declares that enough money is now being practically wasted by the department of agriculture in sending out farm bulletins and other government documents to carry out his scheme. He says this much valuable information has been developed by the experts in these publications but their contents are so little understood by the farmers that they don't derive the knowledge they should as to best cultural methods to grow corn, wheat, hay and the other regular crops.

MOST EFFECTIVE

Neglect of even an ordinary cough or cold is apt to leave the lungs sore and especially susceptible to bronchial affections. To break up a cold quickly and cure any cough that is curable there is nothing more effective than a mixture of one-half ounce of Virgin Oil of Pine, with two ounces of glycerine and a half pint of good whiskey. Take a teaspoonful every four hours. Five ounces of tincture of Cinchona compound can be used instead of whiskey with the same result.

The ingredients for this mixture are not expensive and can be purchased at any good drug store. It will always be found more satisfactory, however, to purchase each separately and mix them at home. Virgin Oil of Pine is a pure compound guaranteed by the manufacturer under the Food and Drugs Act. Serial No. 121 and is prepared only in the laboratories of the Leach Chemical Co. Cincinnati, O. being put up for dispensing, only in half-ounce vials each vial securely sealed in a round wooden case.

SMITH DENIES WIFE'S COMPLAINT IN SUIT

Papers were filed for divorce yesterday by Helena I. Smith wife of Reuben H. Smith, a prominent mining man of this city on the grounds of cruelty and his inordinately love for liquor. Mrs. Smith in her complaint states that her husband struck her at one time with sufficient force to cause her an attack of sickness. She also claims that her husband was addicted to the use of liquor that he came home many times in an intoxicated condition.

Mr. Smith denies each charge and claims that though on the road for twelve years at one time as a liquor agent, he has never been intoxicated. The charges, he states, are simply trumped up in order to get something to base a claim for a divorce upon.

GRAND JURORS TEST ROAD ROCK

To Make Early Report on Condition of Scenic Boulevard Built by County.

In order that the discussion as to whether the rock used on the Scenic Boulevard, built by the county from Fifth street to Hayward, was of good quality or not may not be determined one way or another, the grand jury will make an early report on what it discovered in its investigation yesterday.

The grand jury visited the Scenic boulevard yesterday, four automobiles being chartered for the purpose. District Attorney Brown and County Surveyor Haviland accompanied the party. Frequent stops were made along the road and samples of the rock were taken. These were sent to the United Iron Works, at Third and Jefferson streets, and placed in a crusher to be tested. The machine was sealed, and after the crushing had been done the rock was removed.

The grand jury will meet again next week. It is probable that the report will be drafted then made public.

THE GLASS OF TIME

I.
"Will you be mine,
Sweet Valentine?"
Were words from lover true
On dainty sheet
Of parchment neat,
They shone in gold and blue.

II.
A maiden fair,
With flaxen hair,
The missive read again,
"Ah, shock her head,
"I dearly loved him then."

III.
But days have fled,
And love is dead,
That seemed so near to heaven,
The Pearl is cold,
To loves of old,
That glowed in nineteen seven.

IV.
A new flame burns,
To him she turns,
This message seals her fate:
"Will you be mine,
Sweet Valentine?"
"Tis leap year, nineteen eight."

drama of primaries and conventions for the pretended popular choice of candidates. This sham pageant of popular representation deceives some and vaguely soothes the minds of others so as to prevent revolt," said John W. Stetson last night in a vehement address on "Direct Primaries" delivered before the Starr King Fraternity in Wendell Hall.

Judge Stetson maintained that one of the hopeful signs of this end of the twentieth century is an apparent awakening of the public conscience to existing evils we had almost come to think matters of course.

The speaker dwelt at length upon the men most active in politics whose personal interest lies in the possession and control of office and particularly of influence with legislative bodies which have so much to do with the great material interests of business.

Judge Stetson spoke in part as follows: "It may be said that there is danger in proceeding in behalf of measures and neglecting men, that good measures spring from the activity of good men who are their sole, safe protagonists. That therefore our nominating systems the initiatory stage of participation of people in self government, are of fundamental importance.

There is also a consensus of opinion amongst these men that the system, as it has long existed permits the gravest of abuses and has about demonstrated its uselessness to permit an expression of the popular will that amounts to self-government.

The fact of the matter is we have proceeded a long time on the theory that convention nominations represent the will of the people or rather in fact an expression of a little better judgment than the people would bring to the suggestion of party nominees.

Old-Time Theory.

We have been thinking for a long time that this is a representative government and acting as if it were a democracy. The reason being doubtless that our national constitution is wholly framed upon the principle that a republic as compared with the pure democracy will give a better government.

"The ordinary citizen who merely goes to the polls at a preliminary election and votes has no more chance of improving the condition of bad government than the idle wind that blows. That successful movements in the interests of good government can only be carried on by an amount of preliminary organization and expenditure of money and use of worldly wisdom, approximately equal to that which the entrenched body of professional politicians use to maintain their control in other words, the nominating device of the present day places all the advantage with the political manipulator and demands more from the average citizen in order to have his voice heard than should be required in the busy world.

"One of conditions such as these arose the first beginnings of the direct primary. Somebody thought if a convention doesn't deliberate what is the use of it if it doesn't deliberate it must act according to the program made in advance or else at hazard. Who makes the program? Not the people, why not? Simply because that is well nigh impossible in the system of convention nominations. Then the people vote directly for candidates, this seems simple but there has been a great deal of experiment, trial and error and no direct primary has yet been proposed which meets all the objections made and thus it may be said that in no place where the direct primary has been used has it been abolished and the consensus of opinion seems to be that on the whole such systems as have already been proposed have much more to be said in their favor than against them.

Correction of Evil.

"I am convinced that the direct primary as it shall be finally perfected offers a correction of an evil that cannot be permitted much longer to exist.

I doubt very greatly whether the most perfect system of direct primary would bring about any radical change in the condition of politics under our system of popular government. Those most active in its participation will be the ones who spend their time and talents in its affairs. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty, eternal activity on the part of good men is the price of good government and indeed it should be so. Organization works, adroitness adjusts to the popular standards of propriety will always produce results. But this, the adoption of a direct primary will do, it will make the nominee the choice of the voter. The responsibility for his selection will be brought home to the people and cannot be evaded.

"Evils now charged to the machinations of politicians must then be charged to the indifference or unworthiness of the voter. The responsibility that the American voter will rise to meet will be upon him. Reckless denunciation of public officers will become less frequent because the citizen will be denouncing his own creation and he will be a little more careful to see whether he is right or not.

"The movement for a direct primary seems to be the last step toward a reform which must come if the party system of government is to endure. When the average men finally awakens to the fact that party allegiance is only worthy when his party stands for a principle he will demand that the standard bearers of that party represent the choice of the rank and file."

Miss Hazel Blackhart, a sweet-voiced singer, and Miss Lillian Swale, the child impersonator, were interesting contributions to the evening's entertainment.

MUST PASS UPON SCHMITZ APPEAL BY MARCH 8

Supreme Court Limited as to Time in Passing Upon Application for Rehearing.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—Under the law the Supreme Court must either grant or deny by March 8 the application of the people for rehearing of the Schmitz extortion case. If the application is granted the hearing will be set for a later date, and on the resulting decision will hang the fate not only of Mayor Schmitz but also of Abe Ruef.

The application was submitted to the Supreme Court by Attorney General U. S. Webb. District Attorney William H. Langdon. Assistant District Attorney Francis J. Heney. Hiram W. Johnson. Charles W. Cobb and J. J. Dwyer, representing the state.

The application for rehearing deals only with two points as all other questions are secondary to these and argument upon them useless until these questions are settled. The first ground of petition deals with the contention of the people that Schmitz's appeal from conviction was taken prematurely and should therefore be dismissed, while the second deals with the ruling of the court of appeal that the indictment on which Schmitz was convicted was insufficient, in that it alleged no crime.

RECOMMEND REFUSING OF TRANSFER OF A LICENSE

City Council Committee Sustains Lengthy Protest.

The license committee of the City Council last night recommended to refuse to permit Mello Brothers to transfer the location of their saloon from 782 East Twelfth street to 1133 Twenty-third avenue under a strong protest from business and professional men of the neighborhood of Twenty-third avenue.

Councilman Jackson, Ellsworth Barnhart and Eucos voted against the transfer and Burns in favor of it.

Phillip Gareau failed to obtain permission to transfer his place of business to 951 Webster street because of a protest from the Congregational Oriental Mission. Miles Doody former fire chief of Oakland who owns the premises at 951 Webster street appeared before the committee in favor of Gareau.

J. B. Nye who intends to conduct a cafe in the First National Bank building at Fourteenth and Broadway asked for a liquor license for his place. His application was placed on file as he has not yet secured a license to transfer. Under Nye's lease he can have no bar in his cafe in the new bank building, but can serve liquors with meals.

The following transfers of licenses were recommended to be allowed: A. Arnold and Mrs. A. Abbott 1112 Stanford avenue, J. Minola and Charles Violette, 822 Washington street. P. M. Micevion and J. Grillich, 216-218 San Pablo avenue, D. Ravizza 1446 Fifth street, J. S. Wilson, 253 B street.

The following old licenses were recommended to be re-issued: M. A. Ambrose, 701 Franklin street. J. P. Girard and E. F. Woodness 473 Seventh street. Charles Hoening, 651 Park avenue. W. F. Perry and T. Pereira, 1601 Fifth street. Joseph Raymond southeast corner Tenth and Campbell streets. J. A. Rogers, 817 San Pablo avenue, Tullman & Wielander, 1154 Seventh street, and 855-87 Adeline street.

The following new applications were filed because the limit of 350 saloons recently established made it impossible to grant them at present.

F. Armazino 828 Fortieth street, J. B. Nye Fourteenth and Broadway, basement. First National Bank building, Steve Spicula, 486-488 San Pablo avenue, William Walsh and Kirby, foot of Seventh avenue (De Fremery wharf).

DR. PARDEE TO SPEAK TO IMPROVEMENT CLUB

Members of Clinton Organization Accomplish Much Work.

The Clinton Improvement Club will meet this evening at Washington Hall corner East Twelfth street and Sixth avenue, the regular meeting nights now being the second and fourth Fridays of each month.

The officers of the club feel very much encouraged by what has been accomplished in the five months of the club's existence. The Board of Public Works and the City Council at the club's solicitation ordered the following improvements to be made:

The closing and cleaning up of the dumps on the east side of the mud flats thereby abating the nuisance of last summer. The laying of the First avenue sewer extension to deep water to relieve the distressing condition of the lake channel the final appropriation of $2,000 to build a retaining wall for the lake channel and a new dam at Eighth street bridge.

The Board of Public Works has given orders for a fine system of street lights along East Twelfth street.

The Oakland Traction Company has agreed to rebuild the car tracks on East Fifteenth street thereby relieving the residents of that district.

Amputation proceedings have been started by the city in order to purchase the balance of the mud flats and Mayor Mott expects an early trial.

The club has started a campaign for ment walks where none exist in the section of the city in which the club is interested.

Former Governor Pardee will address the club on Friday night March 13 on Water Front and Harbor Improvements.

The officers of the club are J. D. Sanford, president, 54 East Twelfth street. M. C. O'Toole, first vice president. J. W. Evans second vice president. L. N. Cobblelock, secretary treasurer, 712 14 Broadway. Executive committee: John L. Blanc, Colonel S. J. Kellogg, Henry Ruedy, W. A. G. McKeanie, L. Lanz.

POOR MANAGEMENT.

"Now I see said the proprietor of the musical comedy. 'What is it?' inquired the stage manager. Last night you gave the last act first. Probably nobody noticed it but it shows lack of system. Don't let this occur again."

A critic's scepticism must be only one part of the balance of which the other is his enthusiasm.

S.S.S. CURES CATARRH

Catarrh is not merely a disease of the mucous membranes and inner linings of the body as some of the symptoms would seem to indicate; it is a deep-seated blood disease, in which the entire circulation and the greater part of the system are involved. Like all other blood diseases, Catarrh comes from poisons and impurities accumulating in the circulation which irritate and inflame the tissues and mucous surfaces, and then the unpleasant symptoms of the disease are manifested. There is a ringing noise in the ears, a thin, watery discharge from the nostrils, filthy matter drops back into the throat, the breath has an offensive odor, and many other annoying and unpleasant symptoms are characteristic of the trouble. Sprays, washes, inhalations, etc., cannot reach the blood, and are therefore valuable only for the temporary relief they afford. To cure Catarrh the blood must be purified. Nothing equals S. S. S. for this purpose; it goes down into the circulation, removes the catarrhal matter, purifies the blood and makes a lasting cure. When S. S. S. has removed the cause, the blood being pure and healthy nourishes the membranes and tissues instead of irritating them with noxious matter, and the symptoms all pass away. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free.

HOW I TOOK MY WRINKLES OUT

After Facial Massage, Creams and Beauty Doctors Had Failed.

BY HARRIETT META.

Trouble, worry and ill health brought me deep lines and wrinkles. I realized that they not only marred my appearance but also made me look much older than I was. I had heard that a woman's success either socially or financially depends very largely on her appearance. The homely woman, with deep lines and furrows in her face must fight an unequal battle with her younger and better looking sister.

I therefore bought various brands of cold cream and skin foods and massaged my face with most constant regularity, hoping to regain my former appearance. But the wrinkles simply would not go. On the contrary they seemed to get deeper. At last I went to a beauty specialist, who told me she could easily rid me of my wrinkles. I paid my money and took her treatment. Sometimes I thought it was all right but after spending all the money I could afford for such treatment I found I still had my wrinkles. So I gave up in despair and concluded I must carry them to my grave. One day a friend of mine who was versed in chemistry made a suggestion, and this gave me a new idea. I immediately went to work making experiments and studying everything I could get hold of on this subject. After several long months of almost numberless trials and discouragements I finally discovered a process which produced most astounding results on my wrinkles in a single night. I was delighted beyond expression. I tried my treatment again and lo, and behold, my wrinkles were practically gone. A third treatment—three nights in all—and I had no wrinkles and my face was as smooth as ever. I next offered my treatment to some of my immediate friends, who used it with surprising results, and I have now decided to give it to the public. I will send further particulars to any one who is interested, absolutely free of charge. I use no cream, facial massage, face steaming or so called skin foods there is nothing to inject and nothing to injure the skin. It is an entirely new discovery of my own and so simple that you can use it without the knowledge of your most intimate friends. You apply the treatment at night, and go to bed. In the morning, lo! the wonderful transformation. People often write me it sounds too good to be true. Well, the test will tell. If interested in my discovery please address Harriett Meta, suite 529, Syracuse N. Y. and I will send full particulars.

MRS. MARTIN ASKS TO SEE OAKLAND POLICE

Anxious to Tell Her Whole Story to Them

The trial of the charge on which they are holding me here unjustly. It will be easy for me to prove my innocence of the charge of burning the barn and then I will go to Oakland and confront my accusers there. "When the Oakland officials come here I want to see them at once. I am prepared to prove to them or to any other unprejudiced person that Baby John is irresponsible and that it is the rankest injustice to me to give credence to what he says. "All this talk about hypnotism is rot. I never hypnotized the boy. I cannot hypnotize. Of course I know something of hypnotism. Who at my age does not?"

District Attorney Hall has decided that "Baby John" should go to Oakland at once and help the authorities there gather the loose ends of the case together. The boy seemed glad that he was to be taken to Oakland but when told that he was to face the judges there and tell them what he has already told here, he asked almost in a whisper:

Shuns Woman.

"Must I be near my mother when I am talking to those men down there?" Oh, yes, they told him. We want you to look her straight in the eye and tell the truth and the whole truth and nothing but the truth.

Well, the boy replied pathetically. "I have been and am now willing to tell all I know, but I cannot face my mother. I am afraid of her, and she has a sort of influence over me. I don't know what it is or what it means. "But I do know that when she looks at me she seems to see clear through me and I am afraid and sick through to my heart."

Under Hypnotic Spell.

The boy's statements to District Attorney Hall have convinced the officials that Mrs. Martin does indeed possess some sort of spell over the boy and he has been quietly investigating. His researches have brought to him the fact a fact beyond the shadow of a doubt, that the boy is and has been for many years under a hypnotic spell wielded by his so-called mother. Hall is convinced that the spell is now broken however and does not propose to allow the boy to again fall into the woman's sinister clutches.

The district attorney is now assured that Mrs. Martin has nothing to do with the burning of Judge Sargent's home and the plot to assassinate the judge. He has only recently learned that Mrs. Martin was suspected of burning the Abe P. Leach home in Oakland about a year ago and was not satisfied about that yet.

"Baby John" professes to have grown very fond of me," said Hall today, and I am convinced that he will tell me about the Leach place and everything else he knows.

Shysters Busy.

Mrs. Martin has lately been making frantic efforts to secure counsel while she has had scores of offers from unknown lawyers all over the State and from as far away as Reno, Nev., and Seattle. She has not been satisfied with any of these.

It is known that she approached Attorney Grove L. Johnson and Attorney Wm. A. Anderson in Sacramento and Judge Given, formerly district attorney of Trinity county and made them liberal offers to defend her, but none has agreed to do so for her. She is right that none of the three will do so.

I am a poor, lonely woman said Mrs. Martin today, and almost three years ago I had every good lawyer in the State at my beck and call. Today they will have nothing to do with me because I am crazy. Besides they have all got me for nothing. Well I have lots of it and I shall yet turn and spit upon my traders.

I never believed that men calling themselves and thinking themselves men could treat a lone woman as I have been treated in Nevada and elsewhere since this trouble began.

Mrs. Martin today, and almost three years ago I had every good lawyer in the State at my beck and call. Today they will have nothing to do with me because I am crazy. Besides they have all got me for nothing. Well I have lots of it and I shall yet turn and spit upon my traders.

I never believed that men calling themselves and thinking themselves men could treat a lone woman as I have been treated in Nevada and elsewhere since this trouble began.

District Attorney Brown's representative and a deputy sheriff of Alameda county should reach Weaverville Friday night and will start early Saturday morning for Oakland with their prisoners.

Hidden in a mine owned by Mrs. Martin near Weaverville which was searched yesterday, were found five cans of cyanide four cans of cyanide potassium, three cans of phosphorus, half a barrel sack of Paris green and smaller quantities of other poisons including strychnine and prussic acid. There was enough dynamite to raise four or five blocks of steel railroad city shrapnel and sawdust and nitric acid, with quantities of percussion caps like the box of 100 found with the dynamite bomb here.

Would Kill All.

Had only a portion of Mrs. Martin's store of poisons been poured into the bedding down reservoir, as "Baby John" said she intended, Redding's population would have been wiped out. When asked this morning if he would like to go and see the place, Baby John became so terrified that he cried and shook in the most nervous and excited manner. The mere suggestion of meeting Mrs. Martin after what he had told about her on the witness stand completely unnerved the boy and he begged piteously not to be taken near her.

Since his confession in the courtroom "Baby John" Martin now 18 years of age, for the first time in his trying and terrible nightmare of a life, has been permitted to associate with other children. This privilege was afforded him by Deputy Sheriff Johnson, at whose home he spent yesterday afternoon prior to being taken to the county hospital there for safe keeping.

The delighted boy found juvenile companionship immensely refreshing to his mind and for the first time since his arrest he smiled and laughed. When told he would have to live at the hospital the boy wept and then gazed longingly after the other children when driven away.

District Attorney Hall has expressed his complete willingness to surrender Mrs. Martin and her boy to the Alameda county officers. In this case the charge of arson will be kept on file but held in abeyance so that should the defendant be acquitted on the attempt to murder charge she could be returned to Trinity county for trial as an incendiary. Contrary to general opinion, the woman only is under arrest and the boy is held merely as a witness.

Before Queen Olga of Greece took the matter in hand there was no provision made by the State for the care of the sick poor, but there are now numerous infirmaries, which she often visits. Her Majesty is also interested in a home for seamen of all nations, and her kindness in providing a small dowry for a peasant girl has on more than one occasion smoothed the path of love for a sailor in King George's service and the maiden of his choice.

WIFE WEEPS ON WITNESS STAND

Declares Shoe Merchant Threw Hot Water on Her and Choked Her.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—Mrs. Margaret Nolan, when not weeping on the stand, told in Judge Graham's court of numerous acts of cruelty which she declared she had suffered from W. H. Nolan, the wholesale shoe man she is suing for divorce. Among the allegations were that her husband choked her threw hot water on her, frequently reviled her in violent anger, and for nearly two years had not given her a cent or spoken a word to her, notwithstanding that they lived in the same house, 234 Washington street.

Nolan was on the stand part of the day and more of his "dreams" were introduced in evidence.

"With God's help I will start a bank if I win successful at stocks was one of the scribbled memoranda saved by his wife from the waste basket and shown to Nolan by Attorney Matt Sullivan.

"It appears, that was one of my dreams," Nolan remarked in reply to a question.

Colonel J. G. Gisting, Hall's safe for director in bank, was another memorandum shown Nolan.

I suppose that was one of my dreams, also," said the witness.

"Well, we will put this dream in evidence," retorted Sullivan.

Nolan admitted that at one time he did have serious thoughts of starting a bank, if he could get people to subscribe the capital.

Claims Husband in Rage.

In April 1907 Mrs. Nolan testified she hid a loaded pistol from her husband, and he flew into such a violent rage that he tore down lace curtains and with a gas lighter smashed a glass cabinet into atoms.

You see her nose is red, and that is a sign she drinks," said Nolan. Nolan is alleged by his wife to have made this remark to a doctor, and also to have said that he did not see how she could sleep as she did unless she was drunk.

For years he gave me no money at all to handle," said Mrs. Nolan. "then he arranged to give me $3 a day to run the house on. It was only for six days of the week on Sundays he gave me nothing. He wanted his three meals on Sunday just the same, however.

Since June, 1906, he has not spoken a word to me. He seldom speaks to the children. About a week ago he brought home some oranges for them and yesterday he gave one of the boys 10 cents. Except this and some candy, he has not given one of them any food in nearly two years. With the help of my relatives I have supported the five children and myself. After the fire I took roomers in the house and worked so hard that I became ill and fell down in faints every day.

James A. Deering, a shoe salesman testified that he had seen Nolan in a temper with his wife and evidence was given by Mrs. John Anderson—who was employed as nurse—that Nolan treated his wife badly.

ARPER BUILDS ON WHARF; DOES NOT SEEM TO FEAR INJUNCTION

THE HOUSE THAT ARPER BUILT.

DECLARES HE WILL COMPLETE BIG WAREHOUSE

Continues Work Despite City's Revocation of His Permit.

George W. Arper of the Arper Transportation Company, may be cited for contempt of court, may be cited for contempt of court, may be cited for contempt of court.

Arper applied for and received a permit from the city building inspector to build a bond and warehouse on the Broadway wharf at the foot of Broadway in the latter part of January. He proceeded to build in accordance with the permit, but a few days later the matter was brought to the attention of the Board of Works, which took immediate cognizance and ordered a complete revocation of the permit on the ground that the city would render itself liable to contempt of court if it should allow the permit to stand.

Building Inspector Towle visited the wharf Tuesday, February 4, and ordered Arper to cease operations. Later, several policemen did the same thing and compelled the workmen to quit. Arper disregarded the minions of the law and says himself that he had his men work on the building on the night of Friday, February 7.

GEORGE W. ARPER.

Arper obtained his permit from a clerk in the Building Inspector's office, but the Board of Works never knew of the matter until it was called to their attention. The board then took legal counsel from the City Attorney and W. H. Davis, and these gentlemen decided that the granting of the permit was an infraction of the injunction and that the city had no right to issue the permit. The board rescinded the permit.

Although the parties interested will not admit it, those acquainted with the light over the Broadway wharf state that Arper bases his action on the supposition that the portion of the wharf occupied by his warehouse does not come within the harbor lines specified in the injunction referred to.

Many claimed possession of the wharf by right of purchase and the old Carpenter title.

Permit Void.

FEARS CASTAWAY DEAD ON ISLAND

(By ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

NORWALK, Conn., Feb. 14.—Mrs. J. H. Claridge, sister of Frederick Jeffs, the sailor who is supposed to be a castaway on one of the Galapagos Islands, has received from Norway a report of his casting away last July and she fears that the attempt to rescue, which will be made by one of the ships of Admiral Evans' fleet, will be too late.

The vessel on which Jeffs was serving was wrecked on the island and all the crew reached shore safely. After spending several days on the island all of the crew except Jeffs, who was ill, journeyed from the place where they landed to the other end of the island looking for a ship. From there they were rescued, but the rescuing ship, being insufficiently provisioned, was unable to go after Jeffs.

Intimidating the Supreme Court.

The petition filed by the attorneys for Rudolph Spreckels private prosecution asking the Supreme Court to grant a rehearing in the Schmitz case is bullying in tone and grossly insulting to the District Court of Appeal. The abuse heaped on the Appellate Court by the organs of the Spreckels private prosecution is urged as a reason why the Supreme Court should reverse the decision. Public clamor directly incited by the prosecution's agents, attorneys and newspaper organs is cited as an argument for overthrowing the law. The Supreme justices are quite plainly informed that they must come through for the prosecution or be pelted with dead cats, as were the Appellate judges.

There is also a lot of flapping about calling an extra session of the Legislature to amend the statute defining the crime of extortion. As if the Supreme Court has any authority to convene the Legislature or give directions to the law-making power! All this shows an intent to browbeat and bulldoze the court of final resort into taking program like Judges Lawlor and Dunne. Two of the Supreme justices have already been personally attacked by the Spreckels newspaper in disgraceful terms of vilification.

By piling epithet on epithet describing the alleged villainy of Schmitz, the attorneys for the private prosecution seek to cover up the lack of legal warrant for their contention. This is mere playing to the gallery and trifling with judicial process. The law is not changed by calling Schmitz all sorts of names. The court is not called upon to pass upon the guilt or innocence of the ex-mayor. Its sole function in this matter is to construe the letter of the law and pass upon the legality of the proceedings before the trial court. Hence referring to the defendant as "a conscienceless rogue, a faithless official and a thief dressed in brief authority" is simply yelling at the judges to do as they are told and let the law go hang. Schmitz's alleged infamy is not a determinative factor in judicial interpretation of the law. The following bit of bloviating rhodomontade is illustrative of the Heney method of prosecuting by public clamor and intimidation:

"It is, we hope, entirely respectful to the honorable District Court of Appeal to say that no opinion rendered by an Appellate tribunal in California has ever met with such universal and severe reprobation by the reputable organs of public opinion not only in California but throughout the United States, as has the present decision that the facts alleged do not constitute the crime of extortion. Language, apparently, has been inadequate to express the horror and indignation at the decision entertained by many journals and publicists of the highest character for independence, ability, probity and calmness."

The pretense of showing respect for the Appellate Court is like the honesty of Iago, a blend of hypocrisy and villany. The tone of respect speedily changes to a note of denunciation and menace. Behind the covert threat is the broad intimation that if the Appellate Court has correctly construed the law, the Supreme Court should by judicial enactment amend it to suit the purposes of the prosecution. Here we have a conspicuous example of a private prosecution, big stick in hand, giving orders and the law to the highest court in the State, in the truculent language of coercion. Not even Kaiser William dare demand such obedience of the courts of Germany as Rudolph Spreckels demands of the courts of California. When the history of this self-constituted dictator and the incidents of his career are recalled we wonder why Black Bart was sent to prison instead of being elevated to the highest offices within the gift of the State.

Anti-Plague Precautions.

San Francisco is making a commendable effort to put itself in good sanitary condition and THE TRIBUNE sincerely hopes it will succeed. Before the earthquake and conflagration of April, 1906, its sanitation was in a deplorably low stage. The surface of its business and more densely residence quarters were purified by fire temporarily, but its drainage system was wrecked to the limit by the shattering effects of the seismic disturbance which preceded the great conflagration and its sanitary condition has since grown from bad to worse, for in the haste to rehabilitate its business quarters and re-establish its commercial supremacy attention was not given to the repairing of its broken and choked sewers which should have taken precedence over everything else. The city is, therefore, up against an extraordinary condition at the present time.

For years before the earthquake and the conflagration, San Francisco was afflicted with the bubonic plague, which was introduced through its Chinese colony and had spread into other quarters outside of Chinatown. Its newspapers adopted, however, the foolish policy of denying the existence of the plague and denouncing the efforts made by the health officials—local, State and Federal—to eradicate it, as a false alarm and as a grafting measure, to prevent the establishment of a temporary quarantine which would injure business and blight the commerce of the port. It was a penny wise pound foolish policy, for, properly treated at the time, the plague could undoubtedly have been completely stamped out.

The fire exterminated the plague germs on the surface; but the infected sewer rats survived the disaster by taking refuge underground. A recrudescence of the plague in a more virulent form has, consequently, accompanied the work of rehabilitation. The citizens health committee, consisting of many of the best known physicians in San Francisco and some of its leading merchants, has become seriously disturbed over the situation and publicly announces, in its efforts to suppress the plague, that the percentage of infected rats has increased threefold since last September, and it earnestly appeals to citizens generally to wage a relentless war of extermination on these rodents before the season of the hibernation of fleas, which are the transmitting agents of the disease to human beings, is over, lest, when the battleship fleet reaches this bay, the craves of the warships should not be permitted to land, as the navy regulations are very strict against the granting of shore leave in any port where a contagious disease exists.

The folly of concealment is now made manifest. The health committee's public manifesto is in the nature of a protest against it. Fortunately, the cities on this side of the bay have been carrying out precautionary measures against infection. A strenuous war has been waged for months against the rodent tribe. It behooves each community to redouble its energies in this direction. Whatever San Francisco's unsanitary condition may be, neither of the communities of this side of the bay can afford to be in the same category. There must be maintained not only the strictest system of general house cleaning, but also a complete extermination of all pest-ridden vermin, no matter what the cost, no matter what

by Maid Leaves Coat and Skeleton Key.

Miss Isabella Fletcher, leading woman at Ye Liberty Theater, was the victim of a burglary Wednesday night, who stole a diamond set pin in the shape of a butterfly and a diamond set bracelet from her apartments in the Athens Hotel. That the loss of the actress was not greater is due to the fact that the thief was surprised by Miss Fletcher's maid, who had gone to the rooms on an errand for her mistress.

Miss Fletcher was recently called up by telephone by a man who pretended to be an admirer of her work on the stage and asked for the number of her apartments at the Athens Hotel that he might send her some roses as an appreciation of her efforts. Miss Fletcher, thinking no more of the circumstance, Wednesday night Miss Fletcher's maid caught a man in the act of rifling the place. She gave the alarm and the burglar took to his heels, making his escape. He left his overcoat and a skeleton key behind him. These articles are now in the hands of the police.

Miss Fletcher is a well-known actress and the police that Miss Fletcher's pretended admirer was in reality the burglar who had so easily obtained the location of the actress' room, who had no suspicion that she had been conversing over the telephone with a burglar who had marked her for his victim.

Clay of Georgia Slashes Proposed Measure of Financial Relief.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Senator Clay of Georgia spoke on the Aldrich bill today. He was very careful in his analysis of the plan under consideration for the emergency currency. Senator Clay analyzed the Aldrich bill and declared that it was wrong and vicious and would give no relief to the South and West.

He contended that it simply enlarged the powers of the national banks and that Congress was relinquishing the sovereign right to issue and circulate money, which it ought never have to do. The plan of the minority in the Senate for the government to issue $500,000,000 of treasury notes to use them in paying the expenditures of the government, that they might find their way into all the channels of trade, was advocated by him.

LAWYER BALLANTINE
UNDER ARREST
ON FERRY

Policeman Fahy put a crimp in the Southern Pacific Company's time table this noon by compelling the captain to hold a ferry boat while he caused James A. Ballantine, an attorney of Piedmont, to back off the ferry boat with his automobile and submit to arrest.

Ballantine is said to have been going fifty-five miles an hour along Seventh street, toward the pier and refused to stop for Fahy. The policeman boarded a local train and took to the mole in time to keep the boat from pulling out with the wanted man.

Ballantine, although much surprised at the policeman's appearance, quietly submitted to arrest and put up $50 at the city prison for his release. He is charged with violating the speed ordinance.

T. J. McNALLY DIES
SUDDENLY IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Thomas Jefferson McNally, well-known as a Democratic leader in the First Ward, died of heart disease yesterday. McNally was born sixty-four years ago in Brooklyn, N. Y., where as a boy he worked in the Navy Yard carrying rivets, and was proud of the fact that he had a hand in building the Monitor, which destroyed the Confederate Ironclad, Merrimack. He came to Chicago in 1870.

He was a representative from 1882 to 1886 and had been a member of the State Central, County and Congressional Democratic Committees.

REVOLUTION STOPPED—GUAYQUIL. Feb. 14.—A revolutionary movement at McNally has been tipped in the bud. The soldiers of the garrison there were approached by certain individuals who tried to bribe them to start a revolution. The troops rejected this effort and denounced the agitators to the authorities. The plotters were arrested.

INSTRUCT WELCOME—GUAYQUIL. Ecuador, Feb. 14.—The government has sent cable instructions to its Minister at Lima, Peru, to greet Admiral Evans in the name of Ecuador on the arrival of the American battleship fleet at Callao.

the amount of energy and effort which the work in hand demands. It is the duty of every citizen to remove every source of support and propagation of disease-breeding vermin wherever it exists and the security of the communities on this side of the bay depends upon being kept proof against bubonic plague or any other contagious disease.

The decision to put on two ferryboats to ply between Oakland and San Rafael direct is merely another sign that Oakland is growing. The next move in this kind of development will probably be the establishment of a line of steamboats to ply between Oakland and points on the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers carrying freight and passengers. A former railroad manager says it is one of the most promising enterprises in water transportation at present open for Oakland's exploitation. Direct steamboat communication with the Sacramento and San Joaquin river landings would, he asserts, advance Oakland's trade immensely.

BERKELEY PASTORS ARE TO FIGHT
RACETRACK

Anti-League Will Crusade Against What Is Alleged to be an Evil.

BERKELEY, Feb. 14.—Organized primarily to fight the racing game there has launched under the auspices of the Berkeley Ministerial Association last night, the Anti-Race Track League, the promoters of which hope to make it a State wide institution and a powerful factor in a crusade for better morals in private and public life.

President Benjamin Wheeler of the State University was the principal speaker and in the course of his arraignment of gambling on races and pools he took a sidehanded smash at bridge whist which caused the man and women, many of them leaders of society, to take each other aside and smile demurely behind paw railings in the auditorium of St. Mark's Episcopal Church where the new League was born.

President Wheeler said all form of betting was bad. He said in part: "There are many who rate themselves high in the community and who have a recognized high social standing who do not hesitate to play bridge whist for the pure love of gain or the fear of loss. Do you think the example of these people, many of them pillars of society, have not a deteriorating effect upon their lowlier brethren. Betting on bridge whist differs little in spirit from betting on the races. It is all bad and a cancer we should blot out for the good of the body social and politic."

Pass Resolutions.

Rev. Adelbert S. Coates, pastor of Evangelical Baptist Church, one of the men who issued the call for the gathering, presented the aims and hopes of the new organization in these resolutions which were adopted:

"Resolved, That the time has fully come when all lovers of their fellow men in California should take a determined stand against race track gambling that has for so many years proved the domestic, financial and moral ruin of many thousands of our fellow citizens."

"Resolved, That as citizens of this State University town of Berkeley, we pledge our best endeavor from this time forth for the overthrow of this evil, and call upon all other communities throughout our commonwealth to organize themselves in some effective way for the awakening of the public conscience in regard to this matter that shall manifest itself in prohibitory laws made to be self-enforcing."

"Resolved, That we hereby authorize the chairman of this meeting to appoint a committee of representative citizens of Berkeley whose duty it shall be to organize an anti-race track league, and to see that the righteous sentiment of our own community may manifest itself and that this organization shall seek the co-operation of all other organizations throughout the State that are pledged to human betterment in a determined effort for the elimination of this long tolerated crime against the public."

Names Committee.

Rev. J. K. McLean, president of the Pacific Theological Seminary, who presided, appointed a committee on permanent organization, which will meet Monday evening next in Y. M. C. A. Hall and issue a plan of campaign and report on a list of officers.

This committee made up of P. L. Naylor, F. E. Newton, J. H. McKibben, Prof. G. H. McGraw, R. H. Wendt, F. E. Sadler, William Hammond, Rev. I. N. McCash, Earl H. Webb, Meredith Spencer, G. E. Milnes and S. N. Wyckoff.

President Wheeler declared that as long as racing existed there would be contamination from it throughout Oakland and Berkeley. The game was urged as a source of evil, and he emphatically stated that the evil was still done as money secured by wagers was not beneficial.

"I might say that it would probably have been better for the man to have lost," said President Wheeler. "When Secretary McKeown was found out he told me just after he was sentenced to San Quentin that he was glad it was all over. The pace was too swift for him he declared. Of course it will be argued that a man should be permitted to bet if he chooses but society owes it to itself to restrain its individuals and prevent them from wrecking themselves. The American public is squeamish about matters of this kind but I believe that the public conscience will be awakened to the menace of this monstrous evil."

Judge W. H. Waste followed in a short address reviewing the fight made against racing in the Legislature. Prof. George H. Howison spoke on the ethical side of the question.

BURNS BETRAYED

and Richard O'Connor, was preceded by Henry Ach calling the attention of the court to the reports by some of the persons whose names were drawn for the jury box that they had been approached by some alleged private detectives who sought to get their views on the graft prosecution.

"So far as the defendant in this case is concerned," said Ach, "we want to assure the court that not a single person other than his counsel is being employed in any capacity." He suggested, however, that the court take some action.

This brought forth a statement from Assistant District Attorney O'Garra that it was represented that persons approaching prospective jurors declared themselves to be agents of the district attorney's office and that District Attorney Langdon authorized the statement that to one had been given authority to represent his office in approaching the persons who had complained.

Judge Warns.

After absenting himself from a bench at the court, Judge Langdon returned and stated it was the view of the court that both sides were entitled to learn all about the persons of the jury panel, but warned them that no one must speak to any member of it in regard to their views on the case and ordered that any such act be reported to him.

At 12:35 court took a recess until 2 o'clock, when argument will begin. As yet the prosecution has made no counter showing.

Immunity Promise.

After reciting the history of his arrest and his being kept "in close confinement" and surrounded by a number of guards appointed by W. J. Burns, whom he describes as an agent of Francis J. Ruef, acting for the district attorney, Ruef in his affidavit stated "that said Burns, acting for the prosecution, did from March 28, 1907, to the time of the trial, repeatedly and continuously urge upon the affiant that he should disclose what he knew and did promise, as the agent of the district attorney, that if he would do so his affidavit would be accepted and he would be granted immunity by the district attorney and by the court."

Ruef then states that he "declined" time and again to make any statement, and that Langdon, Heney and Burns then caused the affiant to be taken to the Rev. Bernard Kaplan to call on him and urge him to tell what he knew for the good of the community and that if he would do so he would be promised and guaranteed given full and complete immunity. The two Jewish rabbis called upon Ruef's mother, father and sister and through them urged the affiant to tell the grand jury all he knew. Ruef states that he was told that if he did so he would be granted immunity by the district attorney and by the court.

Ruef says he appeared the following morning in court and was informed that the matter after review set for January 15 and make the said motion to withdraw said plea and that said Langdon would in open court consent thereto.

Ruef says he appeared the following morning in court and was informed that the matter after review set for January 15 and make the said motion to withdraw said plea and that said Langdon would in open court consent thereto.

Burns Assures.

Ruef then goes on to say that Burns repeated to him that if he would do so he would be granted immunity by the district attorney and by the court. Ruef states that he was told that if he did so he would be granted immunity by the district attorney and by the court.

Ruef says that he did not agree with the suggestion and was then told that if he would not do so his co-defendants in the extortion cases, Schmitz and Langdon, would be granted immunity by the district attorney and by the court. Ruef relates all the alleged pressure that was brought on him and his wife, Nieto, Rev. Kaplan, Burns, Heney and

Declares Innocence.

"That it was part of the scheme suggested to affiant by Henry Langdon and Burns that this affiant should plead guilty to the charge on trial (extortion), although affiant always asserted and will assert his innocence of said charge, with the distinct understanding and agreement then made that the said plea should be withdrawn and indictment dismissed."

Ruef says that he did not agree with the suggestion and was then told that if he would not do so his co-defendants in the extortion cases, Schmitz and Langdon, would be granted immunity by the district attorney and by the court. Ruef relates all the alleged pressure that was brought on him and his wife, Nieto, Rev. Kaplan, Burns, Heney and

Langdon finally gave him the most positive assurance that Judge Dunne had agreed that if the plea was withdrawn and that Judge Langdon would dismiss all the indictments against Ruef. Acting upon these promises and a written agreement entered into, he says that he went before the grand jury and testified.

Bares Trickery.

After testifying, the affidavit goes on to say, Ruef asked Heney what steps he should take in the matter of the indictment to which the assistant district attorney replied, "Follow in the footsteps of the other defendants."

After relating several instances during the Ford trial when Heney personally assured him that the agreement would be full carried out, Ruef says that after the decision of the Appellate Court in the Schmitz case, Langdon and Burns attempted to carry out a portion of the contract and had him meet them in Judge Dunne's court, and that "Langdon did state to affiant that he would go in and see the judge and prepare him for the motion to withdraw the plea of guilty which Langdon said he would enter on his behalf. The judge suggested it would be better to make the motion in open court without seeing the judge. Langdon went into the chambers of the judge and after remaining there for a while came out and announced that the judge would not agree to it and it was suggested that the judge and the affiant should go to the judge and see him. It was agreed by Langdon and Burns that they would secure other influences to work upon the said judge to cause him to carry out the agreement heretofore made by him, and it was agreed that I appear in the morning of the morning of January 15 and make the said motion to withdraw said plea and that said Langdon would in open court consent thereto."

Ruef says he appeared the following morning in court and was informed that the matter after review set for January 15 and make the said motion to withdraw said plea and that said Langdon would in open court consent thereto.

Ruef would not be kept. Ruef attached newspaper clippings, giving the alleged immunity contract, to his affidavit as exhibit "A."

OH DEAR! FEARS SHE WILL BE SENT TO ASYLUM

Wifey Laughed So Hard at Hubby's Stale Joke That She Broke Her Jaw

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Henry Lamberson of 302 First street, Brooklyn, a young bridegroom, generally has a new joke to tell his bride at the dinner table each evening, and she anxiously awaits his return from business for that night's laugh.

Lamberson had run out of jokes recently, but his wife, Mary, a pretty brunette of 26, gave him a cue unconsciously when she suggested chopping a little wood for the next morning's range fire. As he started down the cellar stairs he sang out:

"Mary, dear, how much wood would a woodchuck chuck if a woodchuck could chuck wood? He would chuck as much wood as a woodchuck could if a woodchuck could chuck wood."

Mary fell back in a chair in a fit of laughter when she might have overcome had not her husband asked her to repeat what he had said. The thought of such a thing seemed so funny to Mary that her hilarity became alarming, and before her husband could get her out of the hysterical laughing fit she had dislocated her jaw.

Of course, Mr. Lamberson did not know what had happened to her and ran madly into the street and hurriedly summoned an ambulance from Seney Hospital. Surgeon Harden, when told of the joke that had brought about the dislocation, immediately set to work, remarking:

"Well, if it was no more laughable than that, I guess we can fix her for a better joke quickly," and he soon had the jaw back in place.

SUES MOTHER-IN-LAW FOR $50,000

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Granted a separation by Justice Truax in the Supreme court, Mrs. Belle Burnett, whose husband, Charlton R. Burnett, a wealthy Wall street broker, sued her for absolute divorce and failed to get it, has told her domestic troubles.

Mrs. Burnett is a beautiful woman, short of stature, with large black eyes and hair. She was elated over her triumph when she was seen in her home at 128 West Seventy-eighth street.

"You know," she said, her eyes flashing, "I would so like to tell the public all, but Mr. Wing, my counsel, has asked me not to just for a while."

"I cannot help but deny, however, the charge of Mr. Burnett made against myself and Mr. Humphreys. Mr. Humphreys is a very dear friend of not only myself but of Mr. Burnett as well."

"The whole trouble with Mr. Burnett and myself was the old, old story of too much mother-in-law. Mrs. Roger L. Burnett, his mother, is responsible for everything, and as a result of her actions I have brought suit against her for $50,000 for the alienation of my husband's affections. The New York public will have plenty of sensational news when this suit is brought to trial. Mr. Wing will make application for an immediate hearing."

Lonely Soulmates Re-Marry On Wedding Anniversary

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Taking tea alone at the Waldorf, Miss Anne Morgan was the loneliest creature on earth Saturday. For it was the third anniversary of her wedding day. Three years before Miss Morgan, who boasts not only beauty but brains, and who has written a book or two, married Emil Odendahl, of a fine Baltimore family, who has been an actor. They soon found, as they thought, that they are not true soulmates, and she divorced Odendahl in the Maryland court last August. She took her maiden name again, went on the stage and joined the "Little Cherub" Company.

As she glanced from her sad and solitary tea Saturday when did Miss Morgan see at another table but young Mr. Odendahl. Perhaps unconsciously Miss Morgan's expression conveyed a gentle invitation to her former husband, for he went to her table immediately and, seating himself, whispered:

"Anne, do you know what day this is?"

Miss Morgan's tears dropped softly in her cup of consommé.

"Don't you think we were hasty,"

Anne asked Mr. Odendahl. Miss Morgan smiled through her tears.

Really, there is no need to repeat more of the conversation. Miss Morgan answered "Yes" for the second time. The happy Odendahl wired to her mother, who lives in Rochester. She took the first train to New York, gave her blessing to the happy pair, and with them went to the little church around the corner. The Rev. Dr. Lawler made Miss Morgan Mrs. Odendahl again at 9 p. m. Saturday. She is living at 232 West Fifty-eighth street; the bridegroom went to Baltimore for a heart to heart talk with his father, who has much money.

Hugged Chorus Girl; She Punched His Eye

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The son of a well known brewer dined sumptuously and strolled up Broadway to see the sights. One that particularly attracted his attention was three inches of ankle perfect in mould. The owner was a chorus girl, who for some seasons has been a familiar figure on musical comedy stages along the Rialto.

The brewer-once-removed stopped short, then lurched toward the young woman and embraced her. The next instant he received a right hand swing in the eye that sent him sprawling. On regaining his feet the young man spun around twice, fell through the door of a hotel bar and loudly called for a drink. Thereupon some one hit him in the other eye and threw him out.

"This is too much," he said to a crowd that collected. "Times are not what they were before the panic, and I'm going home."

Presumably he went.

SMITH COLLEGE GIRLS ARE SO MAD NOW!

Those Naughty Boys Threaten to Burlesque Their Bare Shoulders in Decolette AND THEY REFUSE TO BE GUYED---SO THERE!

MIDDLETON, Conn., Feb. 14.—From the dignified mortar-board of the most pompous senior to the tip of the littlest pigtail in the Juniors, Smith College is a-quiver with righteous wrath. An insult deep and deadly is threatened its maiden modesty, and budding intellect in petticoats has arisen to crush the destroyer.

The secret has just leaked out that the college, its faculty and its students are to be held up to public ridicule by the boys of the Wesleyan College in an "original" opera, "The Girl and the Graduate."

This is regarded as a chapter of the vendetta, declared by the Wesleyan men upon their own co-eds. Ordinarily their co-eds would supply the ladies of the cast and be proud of the honor; but having no part or parcel in the show they are to see their sisters' beloved alma mater invaded, her little mannerisms broadly caricatured to make a Wesleyan holiday, the skittishness of her freshies and sophs paraded and even the demure proprieties of a goddess of instruction sacrificed on the altar of revenge.

But the masculine imagination has not stopped here. Smith might forgive such a dummy joke as an example of the horse-play humor of the other sex and afford to pass it by with a superior smile. The real thrust of the knife is literally between the shoulders, for the Wesleyan boys propose to burlesque not only the smiles of the girl under-grads, but their personal charms.

The hit of the piece is expected to be a supposed display of Smith's virginal back and arms in a ball scene, wherein the male portrayees of the girl seniors will appear in elaborate decolette frocks. "The Girl and the Graduate" is to be produced by the Glee Club of Wesleyan.

The first act of the opera is laid in Smith College, and it is there the ball takes place, which has aroused such a storm of protest.

In the words of a member of the Glee Club, Wesleyan action in putting on the performance may lead to the breaking off of athletic relations of Wesleyan's co-eds with Smith. R. S. Munson, president of the college body; John H. Cox, manager of the Musical Club, and J. Gregory Paine, president of the junior class, have been favored with this declaration of war from Smith:

"Whereas, It is a matter of common report that in the so-called opera known as 'The Girl and the Graduate,' soon to be publicly presented at Middletown, Conn., by the Wesleyan Glee Club, at least one act is supposed to take place within Smith College; and

"Whereas, It is further reported that various and sundry masculine members of the cast are to be made up dressed to represent the present senior class of Smith College, even to the extent of decolette ball gowns; and

"Whereas, It is further reported that one of our honored preceptors is to be burlesqued in the role of Miss D. Menner, and one of our not entirely honored instructors in that of the Smith professor of mural photography; be it therefore

"Resolved, That the class of 1908 hereby puts itself on record as protesting against any such desecration of the name of fair Smith, its officers, and most particularly against any such burlesque of the best class that ever adorned the institution; be it further

"Resolved, That this class do hereby call upon its brother classes at Wesleyan, and upon all other fair-minded undergraduates of that college, to prevent anything that will lead to a rupture of the pleasant relations that have hitherto existed between the two colleges; and be it

"Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the class and copies of them sent to the manager of the production."

"BEATRICE LEMOYNE WAINWRIGHT, Secretary."

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

The custom of fashionable women riding horseback astride is so growing in England that it can be predicted that it will be the rule instead of the exception in a very few years. Among the prominent women who ride in this fashion are Viscountess Castlereagh, the Duchess of Westminster and the young daughter of the Duchess of Sutherland.

There are many theories on the result of early influences on the makeup of one's temperament, but a Boston school-teacher attributes her quick temper to a wild, untrained, Texas cow. "When I was a baby," she said, "I was fed on the milk of this cow, and I really believe that this is accountable for my temper."

She also believes she made the monkeys understand some things she says to them.

The Spanish and Russians closely approach the Irish. In contrast to the French in Europe, the French in Canada are the most prolific race in Christendom.

ALL SHE GOT WAS A CHECK FOR 1,000 KISSES

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—When the breach of promise suit of Mrs. Margaret Ives, a widow of Newark, N. J., against Edwin G. Koening, an ex-widower of Newark, comes up for Jersey adjudication next spring, the friends of both litigants promise to attend in large numbers.

Mrs. Ives, who at the decease of her husband was supposed to be a woman of large means, began her suit against Koening recently. She sets forth that until it was known that the late Mr. Ives had left little instead of much, she was besieged by suitors, of whom Koening was the most ardent.

Koenig, she avers, wrote her eighty-one interesting letters and gave her a check that she couldn't cash. She will produce all the literature in court.

The check is on the Federal Bank and is for "one thousand kisses," payable to Mrs. Ives. The check was duly presented, and a facetious teller wrote on the back of it:

"Bank cannot honor. Maker will have to pay in person."

Mrs. Ives asserts that Koening made three separate proposals of marriage to her in 1905 alone.

There is no denial that of all the aspirants for Mrs. Ives' hand, Koening lasted the longest. When all save he had died, he still pressed his suit with fervid earnestness—according to Mrs. Ives. But, alas, he married another woman, and now Mrs. Ives demands $20,000 damages.

OH DEAR ! FEARS SHE WILL BE SENT TO ASYLUM

Wifey Laughed So Hard at Hubby's Stale Joke That She Broke Her Jaw

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—Henry Lamberson of 302 First street, Brooklyn, a young bridegroom, generally has a new joke to tell his bride at the dinner table each evening, and she anxiously awaits his return from business for that night's laugh.

Lamberson had run out of jokes recently, but his wife, Mary, a pretty brunette of 26, gave him a cue unconsciously when she suggested chopping a little wood for the next morning's range fire. As he started down the cellar stairs, he sang out:

"Mary, dear, how much wood would a woodchuck chuck if a woodchuck would chuck wood? He would chuck as much wood as a woodchuck could if a woodchuck could chuck wood."

Mary fell back in a chair in a fit of laughter which she might have overcome had not her husband asked her to repeat what he had said. The thought of such a thing seemed so funny to Mary that her hilarity became alarming, and before her husband could get her out of the hysterical laughing fit she had dislocated her jaw.

Of course, Mr. Lamberson did not know what had happened to her and ran madly into the street and hurriedly summoned an ambulance from Seney Hospital. Surgeon Harden, when told of the joke that had brought about the dislocation, immediately set to work, remarking:

"Well, if it was no more laughable than that, I guess we can fix her for a better joke quickly," and he soon had the jaw back in place.

SUES MOTHER-IN-LAW FOR $50,000

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Granted a separation by Justice Truax in the Supreme Court, Mrs. Belle Burnett, whose husband, Charles R. Burnett, a wealthy Wall street broker, sued her for absolute divorce and failed to get it, has told her domestic troubles.

Mrs. Burnett is a beautiful woman, short of stature, with large black eyes and hair. She was elated over her triumph when she was seen in her home at 226 West Seventy-eighth street.

"You know," she said, her eyes flashing, "I would so like to tell the public all, but Mr. Wing, my counsel, has asked me not to just for a while."

"I cannot help but deny, however, the charge of Mr. Burnett made against myself and Mr. Humphreys. Mr. Humphreys is a very dear friend of not only myself but of Mr. Burnett as well."

"The whole trouble with Mr. Burnett and myself was the old, old story of too much mother-in-law. Mrs. Roger L. Burnett, his mother, is responsible for everything, and as a result of her actions I have brought suit against her for $50,000 for the alienation of my husband's affections. The New York public will have plenty of sensational news when this suit is brought to trial. Mr. Wing will make application for an immediate hearing."

Lonely Soulmates Re-Marry On Wedding Anniversary

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Taking tea alone at the Waldorf, Miss Anne Morgan was the loneliest creature on earth Saturday. For it was the third anniversary of her wedding day. Three years before Miss Morgan, who boasts not only beauty but brains, and who has written a book or two, married Emil Odendahl, of a fine Baltimore family, to have been an actor. They soon found, as they thought, that they are not true soulmates, and she divorced Odendahl in the Maryland court last August. She took her maiden name again, went on the stage and joined the "Little Cherub" Company.

As she glanced from her sad and solitary tea Saturday when did young Mr. Odendahl, perhaps unconsciously, Miss Morgan's expression conveyed a gentle invitation to her former husband, for he went to her table immediately and, seating himself, whispered:

"Anne, do you know what day this is?"

Miss Morgan's tears dropped softly in her cup of consommé.

"Don't you think we were hasty,"

Hugged Chorus Girl; She Punched His Eye

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The son of a well known brewer dined sumptuously and strolled up Broadway to see the sights. One that particularly attracted his attention was three inches of ankle,

MRS. SARAH ALICE CUNNINGHAM MURTAGH, WHOSE PICTURE IS HERE SHOWN, IS FIGHTING HER HUSBAND'S APPLICATION FOR A CHANGE OF VENUE IN THE DIVORCE SUIT SHE HAS BROUGHT AGAINST HIM. MRS. MURTAGH FEARS, IF SHE IS TAKEN TO ALBANY FOR THE TRIAL OF THE SUIT, THAT HER HUSBAND'S LOCAL INFLUENCE, MAY BE ABLE TO HAVE HER SENT TO AN INSANE ASYLUM.

SMITH COLLEGE GIRLS ARE SO MAD NOW!

Those Naughty Boys Threaten to Burlesque Their Bare Shoulders in Decollete AND THEY REFUSE TO BE GUYED---SO THERE!

MIDDLETON, Conn., Feb. 14.—From the dignified mortar-board of the most pompous senior to the tip of the littlest pigtail in the juniors, Smith College is a-quiver with righteous wrath. An insult deep and deadly is threatened its maiden modesty, and budding intellect in petticoats has arisen to crush the destroyer.

The secret has just leaked out that the college, its faculty and its students are to be held up to public ridicule by the boys of the Wesleyan College in an "original" opera, "The Girl and the Graduate."

This is regarded as a chapter of the vendetta, declared by the Wesleyan men upon their own co-eds. Ordinarily their co-eds would supply the ladies of the east and be proud of the honor; but having no part or parcel in the show they are to see their sisters' beloved alma mater invaded, her little mannequins broadly caricatured to make a Wesleyan holiday, the skittishness of her freshies and sophs paraded and even the demure proprietaries of a goddess of instruction sacrificed on the altar of revenge.

But the masculine imagination has not stopped here. Smith might forgive such a dummy joke as an example of the horse-play humor of the other sex and afford to pass it by with a superior smile. The real thrust of the knife is literally between the shoulders, for the Wesleyan boys propose to burlesque not only the smiles of the girl under-grads, but their personal charms.

The hit of the piece is expected to be a supposed display of the girl's virginal cheek and arms in a ball scene, when the male portrayers of the girl seniors will appear in elaborate decollete frocks. "The Girl and the Graduate" is to be presented by the Glee Club of Wesleyan.

The first act of the opera is laid in Smith College, and it is there the ball takes place, which has aroused such a storm of protest.

In the words of a member of the Glee Club, Wesleyan's action in putting on the performance may lead to the breaking off of athletic relations of Wesleyan's co-eds with Smith. R. S. Munson, president of the college body; John H. Cox, manager of the Musical Club, and J. Greky Palmo, president of the junior class, have been favored with this declaration of war from Smith:

"Whereas, It is a matter of common report that in the so-called opera known as 'The Girl and the Graduate,' soon to be publicly presented at Middletown, Conn., by the Wesleyan Glee Club, at least one act is supposed to take place within Smith College; and

"Whereas, It is further reported that various and sundry masculine members of the cast are to be made up and dressed to represent the present senior class of Smith College, even to the extent of decollete ball gowns; and

"Whereas, It is further reported that one of our honored preceptors is to be burlesqued in the role of Miss D. Meener, and one of our not entirely un-honored instructors in that of the Smith professor of mural chirography; be it therefore

"Resolved, That the class of 1908 hereby puts itself on record as protesting against any such desecration of the name of fair Smith, its officers, and most particularly against any such burlesque of the best class that ever adorned the institution; be it further

"Resolved, That this class do hereby with call upon its brother class at Wesleyan, and upon all other fair-minded undergraduates of that college, to prevent anything that will lead to a rupture of the pleasant relations that have

hitherto existed between the two colleges; and be it

"Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the class and copies of them sent to the manager of the Wesleyan musical clubs, the president of the undergraduate organization, and the secretary of the senior class.

"BEATRICE LEMOYNE WAINWRIGHT, Secretary."

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

The custom of fashionable women riding horseback astride is so growing in England that it can be predicted that it will be the rule instead of the exception in a very few years. Among the prominent women who ride in this fashion are Viscountess Castlereagh, the Duchess of Westminster and the young daughter of the Duchess of Sutherland.

There are many theories on the result of early influences on the makeup of one's temperament, but a Boston school-marm attributes her quick temper to a wild, untamed, Texas cow. "When I was a baby," she said, "I was fed on the milk of this cow, and I really believe that this is accountable for my temper."

Miss Ida Veronica Simonton, who went to Africa some months ago to study the language of the monkeys, writes from the jungles along the Congo that she is progressing rapidly with her work, and she believes that she has already mastered several words in the monkey language. ### HOW FAR SHOULD A WOMAN GO TO PROTECT LOVED ONES

How far should a woman go to protect her loved ones? What is the limit of the sacrifices she should make, or is there a limit, even death?

For the best thought, contained in less than 200 words, in answer to these questions, THE TRIBUNE will pay $10. This contest is open to all women readers of THE TRIBUNE and will close March 1. To have contributions considered they must be written on one side of the paper, with name and address given.

Address all communications to the editor of the Woman's Page, THE TRIBUNE, Oakland, Cal.

HERE IS ONE WRITER'S VIEW OF A WOMAN'S DUTY TO HER LOVED ONES:

A woman should go just as far as her true conscience will lead her in protecting those she loves.

There is no greater love than a mother's love, and where is the true Christian mother that would not sacrifice everything in the world, except her honor and purity, to protect and defend her offspring? I don't think death necessary unless it is unforseen, for many a mother suffers more than death in the living sacrifices she makes, that her loved ones may reap the benefit. She tells early and late, destroying her health, happiness and very often her personal appearance and in nine cases out of ten is rewarded with ingratitude and harsh treatment. Still at the time of imminent danger her love knows no bounds, and she plunges fearlessly onward with the one great thought to protect her loved ones, no matter what be the result.

WANT LOWER RATES FOR THE "PROFESH"

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The National Association of Theatrical Producing Managers has petitioned the Interstate Commerce Commission for an amelioration of the existing high railroad rates, as applied to theatrical companies. They ask that the theatrical companies be put in a class by themselves and that the railroads be allowed to make special rates for them. It being argued that traveling theatrical companies should be treated as excursion parties with stop-over privileges.

Until the opening of the current season it has been the custom of the railroad companies to allow special rates to theatrical companies on tour but the recent rulings of the commission forced the road to abandon this custom. It is argued that the railroads themselves are willing to return to the old rates. The condition of traffic in the South in particular has now become such that many large companies have canceled their rates rather than pay the rates of the "long jump" in that part of the country as the increased rates would eat up much of the profit if not all of it.

WHEN MONEY IS SCARCE

The Time to Take Advantage of Offer.

Scores of people are entering into the Proverb Hunt this year who before were too busy making money to think of such things.

A. Many an industrious, thoughtful, deserving housewife is daily clipping the cartoons laying them aside, studying, consulting her neighbor and putting down her guess on the answer because she wishes to win that handsome brass bed sewing machine, parlor set, rug, Morris chair, stylish suit or dress patterns. It is not every day that such opportunities come along. Five minutes a day for fifty days, or 350 minutes may be the cause of your winning a $100 brass bed.

This is a good investment for these dull times, besides the fun in connection with the guesses.

Remember to ring up THE TRIBUNE if you do not receive your paper by 6:30 each evening. Those subscribing between February 1 to 13 have the privilege of all back numbers.

Last week one of the exclusive set of Oakland came into THE TRIBUNE office and secured papers for three days past to give them to her deserving maid, to be married in June who is intent upon securing the $100 brass bed or sewing machine. This shows the element of interest in this contest.

The first announcement that THE TRIBUNE made concerning the repetition of last year's contest brought hundreds of inquiries concerning eligibility of contestant or orders for THE TRIBUNE for three months.

When down shopping ask your local merchant with whom you deal to show you the prizes he has on exhibition that are to be given away by THE TRIBUNE.

Every prize is worth five minutes a day of thoughtful work. Clip the cartoons and save them until the end of the week if you're too busy today.

Have a Proverb Hunt party and get your friends to help you out.

POLICE MAY HAVE A "BLACK HAND" BOMB MAKER

Arrest Fruit Peddler in New York After Suspicious Actions—Formerly Explosive Manufacturer.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—In the person of Vincenzo Calderone, who was arrested last night, the members of the Italian Detective squad believe that they have captured the man who has made the bombs used in many, if not all of the recent "black hand" outrages in New York. Calderone was formerly a manufacturer of fireworks at Massena, N. Y., but four years ago his little factory was blown up, his wife was killed and he himself was badly injured. He was unable to continue his work as a manufacturer and therefore came to New York and went into the business of peddling fruit. He roomed in a tenement house in Elizabeth street and was not suspected until a short time ago when four of the Italian detective squad at headquarters were detailed to discover the perpetrators of a bomb outrage through which the front windows of an Italian bank, in which $40,000 in money was exposed, were blown out. Two men were seen running away from the scene of the explosion and into the house where Calderone lived. The four detectives were at work on the case when a couple of days later, the Hotel Savoy, only a few doors from the tenement, was blown up.

DECIDE ON PEDDLER.

A man was seen running into the tenement house. After some investigation the detectives decided the old crippled peddler was the man who had run from the scene of both explosions. The detectives disguised themselves as peddlers laborers and immigrants in turn in an attempt to be invited to the old man's room. It was not until they had worked on the streets some time as peddlers that they became friendly with him. Last night they were invited to the old man's room and conversed with him for a long time. Finally however, he became suspicious and as soon as the disguised detectives saw that he was uneasy they arrested him.

A search of his rooms revealed a half finished bomb, a quantity of white powder which is believed to be an explosive of some sort and a large number of fuses. Calderone, when taken to police headquarters, refused to give any account of himself and was locked up as a suspicious person.

Women of Town Working Hard to Make Park About Depot

CORTE MADERA, Cal., Feb. 14.—A joint meeting of the Corte Madera Women's Club and the Men's Improvement Club was held at Moore's Hall, Corte Madera, on Monday evening, and was largely attended.

Mrs. Mary E. Hart president of the Women's Club, presided, the subject under discussion being the new depot park. M. F. Pixley has already donated the use of ground for same and W. B. Bradbury agreed to furnish sufficient water for irrigating purposes.

Park commissioners were appointed as follows: Chairman Mrs. Mary E. Hart, Mrs. E. C. Chapman, M. F. Pixley, Mrs. S. Wood and W. B. Bradbury.

It was unanimously voted to begin work immediately, and the following day the park site was plowed and graded the posts set for fencing, and rock hauled for the retaining wall, which will form the base of the iron fence to enclose the plat—embracing an area of 100x30 feet directly opposite the depot, and in front of the postoffice and business portion of the town.

Much interest and activity was displayed by the commissioners and friends and members of the clubs, and the work so far has been generously donated by Messrs. Morris, Croall, Allen, Ward, Hammond, Hoffman and others of whom a complete list will be published later, as well as of those contributing to the park fund.

At noon, Mrs. S. Wood, who is always foremost in any movement that tends to the improvement of her home town, invited the commissioners to luncheon in her cozy little cottage near the park, where further plans for laying out walks and planting were formulated.

A special meeting of the Women's Club for the latter purpose has been called on Monday evening next, at the home of Mrs. Eastman.

FOR DYSPESIA

A noted specialist on stomach troubles stated that in Germany dyspepsia is referred to as the "Mother of Maladies" owing to the fact that so many serious and complicated human ailments have their origin in defective digestion.

This doctor also states that if dyspepsia and indigestion is taken in time it is easily curable and gives the following simple prescription which is said to work wonders in correcting the stomach and bowels and restoring them to their normal activity.

Two ounces of Essence of Pepsin; three ounces Syrup of Ginger; one ounce Catapir Compound, mix them well and use in doses of from one to two teaspoonfuls after each meal, also at bedtime for the first few days. These ingredients are harmless but have proven remarkably effective. They can be obtained at any drug store and easily mixed at home and if the treatment is followed up it will produce excellent results in a short time.

VETERAN FIREMAN KILLED LEADING HIS MEN

20 STRUGGLE TO RESCUE CHIEF THEY LOVED

Nearly Lose Lives in Smoke—
Filled Cellar Where Flames Raged.

NEW YORK Feb. 14.—(Specials) Charles Kruger, known for many years as the Grand Old Man of the fire department, lost his life today while leading his men in a desperate battle against flames in Canal street. While working his way cautiously through a cellar filled with smoke and gas, Kruger planned to throw a trap door into a sub-basement filled with water. He was dealt a fatal blow at the moment he was about to take the trap door, and his body was blown more than a score of men had taken the own lives in an effort to save him from the leader.

I knew it you I happen this was said one of Kruger's men when the chief was being carried away. I have been to many fires with him. It was always in the lead. He never said Boys go into that place or this place. He always led himself. He said Boys follow me and that's just what he said this time when he led us into that basement. Boys follow me. It was just as many of us expected. We have often said that he old man would be killed at a fire leading his men.

36 Years Fireman.

Kruger was 36 years old and had been a member of the department for 36 years. Several years ago Kruger was acting chief of the department for a time while Chief Croker was temporarily under suspension.

The fire in which the deputy chief lost his life started at 217 Canal street and before it could be subdued it swept that building from basement to roof spread to two buildings adjoining, routed the tenants from several tenement houses in Baxter street and threatened the Church of the Most Precious Blood. It was after the flames in the upper part of the building were under control that Kruger had taken his men to the basement.

A great pile of excelsior in bales was blazing furiously and an attempt to reach it had been unsuccessful. Kruger asked permission of Chief Croker to take his men through the basement and cut a hole in the wall to 217 where the fire was thickest. Croker consented and a moment later with a dozen men behind him, Kruger plunged into the cellar.

Through Smoke and Gas

The place was filled with smoke and deadly fumes of illuminating gas which flowed from broken or melted pipes but the men pressed cautiously forward in the darkness. Just in the middle of the cellar Kruger stepped on a trap and plunged into six feet of water in the sub-basement. Then began a desperate fight in the gas-filled cellar to save the chief. He could do little to help himself and when a Battalion Chief Galvin plunged into the dark hole and raised Kruger a foot above the surface Galvin was unconscious. It required the combined efforts of twenty firemen weakened as they were by breathing smoke and gas to draw Galvin who still clung to Kruger's body from the pit.

The property loss as a result of the fire is placed at $50,000.

CRESTON, Ia., Feb. 14.—Mrs. Belle Taylor, whose husband was found murdered last night, and her two sons were arrested and held pending an investigation of the death. The coroner admitted there is nothing at the present time to connect them with the killing.

MAKES THREAT AT SUPERVISORS

Rev. Tanner Declares Board Not Doing Its Duty to Citizens.

A number of prominent citizens of the suburbs met with the Rev. W. E. Tanner in the Melrose Baptist Church last night to form an organization to fight any civic evils which exist or may arise and to secure more public conveniences.

The committee on by-laws appointed consists of W. C. Grandland, F. Thompson, E. C. Welch, W. A. Tenney, C. M. Buck and Joseph Spencer. These are to select five other men not connected with any church to aid them.

The Rev. J. O. Duncan and Rev. Herriott pledged themselves to work against graft, saloons and immoral conditions in the community. They contended that the liquor business was injurious not only to the morals but to the economics of the community. They maintained that bootleggers are linked with the saloon men.

Dr. Tanner Speaks.

The Rev. Dr. Tanner who founded the new civic organization spoke in part as follows:

We are willing to co-operate with the Board of Supervisors if in the future they will demonstrate to us that they will be more sincere and true to the best interests of the county than at the present time. If they continue in their past policy of filling this district with roadhouses, saloons, dens of vice and laziness they will excuse themselves by lodging behind so-called ordinances then the best citizens of this community will take radical action for redress at the polls and otherwise.

The Supervisors say that they only grant licenses where in a given application there are a required number of signers as provided by law. This is dodging the issue. The Supervisors have the legal right and it is their patriotic and moral duty to deny applications if in their judgment a certain

HAS NOVEL METHOD FOR MAKING ARREST

'Tell us in your own way how you would make an arrest,' said Walter Lawzett to Markus O. Enoksen, an applicant for appointment to the police force who was undergoing an oral examination before the police commissioners Saturday.

All right, I will tell you in my own way to the best of my ability,' replied Enoksen, who is of Norwegian extraction. I would approach the man and jog his leg with my hand on his shoulder. I would say, 'You are under arrest.'

'Come again,' said Chief Wilson who had heard Enoksen's reply.

That may be a good thing to teach all of our patrolmen.

Enoksen then went on to explain that he had told in his own way how to make an arrest. In plain United States it would mean that Enoksen had placed his hands on a man's shoulders and told him that he was pinned.

Out of forty-three applicants for appointment thirty passed the examination. Enoksen being among the number. Out of the thirty one was to be appointed to the force at the next meeting of the board of commissioners.

Woman Drops Dead While Taking Bath

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—While taking a Hammam bath on Eddy street last night Mrs. Carl Withington of Bakersfield died. It is thought that the heat of the steam room may have affected her heart and after she retired to her room death came. She was found later by a tenant. Mrs. Withington came to the bath with her husband and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zemanek, also of Bakersfield.

district is already too much populated with these places and if they are satisfied that such places will not be for the best moral interests of the community, whether a protest has been filed or not.

Accused of Dodging

But their attitude on the whole question has been to dodge the issue and make a great pretense of being favorable to the best interests of the people. But the matter has reached such a climax that the best citizens in this part of the county will now demand that they do their duty and fully serve the best interests of the people. Otherwise our county officials will have to reckon with them in the future.

San Franciscan Shoots Himself

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Bernard Meyers, 1412 Wabash avenue, shot himself yesterday. He was taken to St. Luke's hospital and physicians said he could not recover. From a picture of a young woman and a note written January 30 the police are inclined to believe that a love affair may have caused Meyers to attempt suicide. He came here from San Francisco and was an office attendant at St. Luke's for a time some months ago. The authorities there do not know his San Francisco relatives' address.

RAILROAD OFFICIAL SEES BIG FUTURE IN OAKLAND

General Passenger Agent Allen Urges More Advertising.

L. M. Allen, general passenger agent for the Rock Island and Frisco Railway, who stopped in Oakland this morning for a few hours on his return home from a convention of the Transcontinental Passenger Association held at Coronado, expressed himself as greatly surprised at the wonderful growth Oakland has made within the last two years. The increase in business exceeded his expectations. Through Edw. B. Baron, city passenger agent, Allen said:

"Oakland is growing. It's a city now, and I believe it has a big future. In your harbor was developed and your city advertised more money centers capitalists would invest here. There is no reason why Oakland should not be a place for tourists. Advertising and it will be. In my opinion it certainly is a place for business, tourist and home-seeker."

SPOUSE IS DENIED TEMPORARY ALIMONY

Mrs. Georgiana Wehrmann failed to obtain alimony pending the trial of her divorce today, Judge Ogden deciding that she was not entitled to it. She asked for $40 a month. Mrs. Wehrmann sued her husband for divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty, one of her allegations being that he tickled the soles of her feet. She also accused him of being "fussy." Wehrmann is a Berkeley Barker. He denied that he was "fussy" or that he had tickled his wife's feet. Today he agreed to provide for his children, but said that his wife, who is now working, could support herself.

WANTED GOD TO REVENGE HIM AFTER HE HAD DIED

Peculiar Statement and Will Left by Refugee.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—A peculiar will was that left by Octave Jacques of Eleventh street refugee camp, who died yesterday morning at the age of eighty-eight years, and which was translated this morning by the Public Administrator. The will reads as follows:

"I have written and sent that which I let you write and send. You will find on me after my death a receipt on the Canadian Bank of Commerce for $1,000 of the date of November 23, 1907."

"With this money you will cremate my body and after having cremated me you will throw the ashes in the bay so that nothing will remain of me."

"The remainder of the money you will give to the poor. Before dying I ask the true spirit who loved me to revenge me after my death in order to punish the injustice of men. I do not work any more. I have been discharged."

"November 23, 1907."

"OCTAVE JACQUES."

SUPERVISOR'S CASE AND JANITOR'S OVER

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—The case of former Supervisor E. P. Nicholson, charged with agreeing to receive a bribe and that of Peter M. Duffy, former janitor of the old city hall, accused of indictment by the Grand Jury of perjury, were each continued for four weeks in Judge Lawlor's court this morning on motion of Assistant District Attorney O'Garra, representing the prosecution.

LUTHER BROWN WILL BE TRIED IN S. F. SHORTLY

Is Charged With Subordination of Perjury by the Grand Jury.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—The case of Luther G. Brown, charge on an indictment by the Grand Jury of subordination of perjury, will probably be set for trial at an early date. Attorney Bert Schuessinger, representing the defendant, this morning submitted the motion to set aside the indictment without taking any additional testimony.

Several grand jurors were called to testify in regard to prejudice against the defendant and on the evidence gathered at that time, today's motion was submitted. Judge Lunne had taken a week in which to decide the matter and it is expected that the trial will begin early in March.

The cases of Eugene E. Schmitz on two bribery indictments in the same department were continued this morning for two weeks on motion of the District Attorney.

RUNS INTO CAR AND IS SERIOUSLY HURT

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—Martin Shortleap, of 3644 Twenty-sixth street, was seriously injured at 5 o'clock this morning in a collision with car 1541 of the Mission street line. Shortleap was riding a bicycle at the Twelfth street when he dashed into the side of the Mission street car, which was moving at a rapid speed. The front wheel and forks of his bicycle were badly smashed and he was thrown violently to the ground.

GIRL STABS MOTORMAN IN NECK WITH HATPIN

Judge Warns 'Ollie Moore to Keep Weapon in Her Hat.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—Ollie Moore of 1841 Rhode Island street, who, on the defensive in the police court, said she is a telephone operator, but who admits the error of the statement as soon as out of the magistrate's hearing, was before Police Judge Shortall this morning on a charge of disturbing the peace. It developed that Ollie became obstreperous on the street car and when the motorman remonstrated with her she drew a hat pin from her hat and jabbed it into his neck. It caused her arrest on a charge of disturbing the peace, but was reluctant to prosecute. The young woman was allowed to depart, but was advised to keep her hat pin in her hat in the future.

GLEASON WILL MAKE ONE MORE TRIAL FOR MATCH

Sullivan and Ketchel Are Both Good Men With Left Hand--Kaufman and Delaney May Go East.

BY EDDIE SMITH.

Jack Gleason will make one more attempt to sign a contest for this month, and today he will have a meeting with Abe Attell and Eddie Kelly for the purpose of trying to get the little fellows to sign up for a twenty-round contest for a percentage of the receipts.

Attell has asked for a guarantee, and it is hardly probable that he will take on Kelly unless he gets it. H. Kohn, who has been acting as a sort of business agent for Attell, was in Oakland yesterday, acting as manager for Kid Farmer in the signing of the articles for a contest with Frank Mantell, and, he at that time said that he had no idea that Attell would sign.

"Abe will positively refuse to sign unless Gleason puts up a good guarantee," said Kohn. "The time is short and we are not sure as to what kind of a house the contest will draw, so what's the use of taking a chance?" The last remark has some significance, too, for there is not the slightest doubt but that Attell would gladly take the Buffalo boy on for a percentage of the receipts if he was an easy one to beat.

Kelly is a tough little fellow with a punch that is rated as being as extremely hard one and Attell, as well as any one, knows that if he should land one on the right spot he might go to the box office and collect the long end of the purse and the feather-weight championship.

There is not the slightest doubt but that the champion is the cleverest of the two and he figures to win from the challenger, but all champions take a chance fighting a man like Kelly, for his record is proof that he is the possessor of a big kick.

Gleason can hardly be expected to make a big guarantee, but it has been reported at headquarters that he is ready to make some concessions to the champion. If the conference today is not ended by the signing of articles then the promoter as well as the fighters will have no chance to make any money this month, and the fans will have to be satisfied with the show that Coffroth is presenting down in the green fields of Colma.

Colma Contest.

If the contest at Colma is anything like it is expected it will be, however, the fans will have no objection to satisfying their fight bug with that contest. Kid Ketchel and Mike (Twin) Sullivan are to meet in this seance, and as today is St. Valentine's Day the fighters might send their opponent nothing more than a picture of their left hand.

This would make a good valentine for the reason that each fighter will be dependent upon that member to a certain extent to win the coming battle. Mike will expect his straight lefts to hold the fast corner from Montana off in his mad rush to victory and Ketchel will expect his left hooks to wear on the body and jaw of the twin to such an extent that he will force his guard down and make way for the crushing right to the jaw that means collect.

Ketchel does not expect to win by outgeneraling the Sullivan fighter, however, and it will not discourage him to think that he is not capable of playing the game as Gans plays it, for Ketchel expects to win from Sullivan by sheer force of brute strength, or in other words by simply going right after him and out-fighting him with real hard slugging, in which he is of the opinion he will have a deal the best of the going owing to the fact that he has by far the best punch.

Maurice Thompson has again gone to the Ketchel camp and is reported ready to resume his work as sparring partner to the middleweight. Ketchel yesterday promised 150 pounds after resting a day from his every day grind. Mike (Twin) promises brother Jack a real brotherly beating with the gloves if he does not make haste and arrive at Shannon's Villa to help him in his training for Ketchel.

Clifford Wants Match.

Jack Clifford is in Oakland and is looking for fight. He wants to meet the winner of the Gardner-Keller contest at the Reliance Club next Tuesday.

Clifford is a hard fighting fellow, but has had the toughest luck of any fighter the writer knows of. He is always willing to fight and with few exceptions has always given the people a good run for their money. He has been unfortunate in his attempt to reach the top and while he is ready to make one more attempt he is seriously considering an offer to play professional baseball with the Sacramento State League team.

Kaufman May Go East.

Billy Delaney has announced that he may take Al Kaufman to Boston where he has been offered a match with Jack (Twin) Sullivan, the contest to take place on March 17th.

Kaufman has been treating with an Oakland physician in hopes of being able to breathe better and it is said that he is about well. Delaney has had several offers to meet Jim Flynn with Kaufman, but prefers to start the big fellow the six or ten round game. If Kaufman is in condition to fight Delaney and will leave for the East immediately.

Two Johnnies to Sign.

Tonight Promoter Jim Coffroth will sign Cyclone Johnnie Thompson and Johnnie Murphy for a long distance contest at his Colma arena on March 7th. The men are to weigh 133 pounds at 10 o'clock in the morning and Billy Roache will act as referee.

Thompson will have to hustle to make the weight, but as the contest will not go until 2:15 in the afternoon he should be good and strong on entering the ring. Murphy will receive his first real tryout in that contest, and if he shows the same improvement that he has shown in the past he will be pitted against some of the best we have in his class. A strong preliminary between Monte Attell and Jimmy Carroll may be signed for the occasion.

SANTA CLARANS DEFEAT STANFORD IN 1-TO-0 GAME

Collegians Put Up Remarkable Game of Baseball--Witmer Pitches in Great Form.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Feb. 14.—In the best game of baseball played hereabouts this season the Santa Clara College team defeated the Stanford nine by a score of 1 to 0. Witmer pitched the entire game for Stanford and his work was of the highest order. Thiele and Goodell were too tired from efforts with the Phoenix team.

The game yesterday was almost free from errors and sensational plays were of frequent occurrence. In the third inning Stanford struck out three men in succession and in the same inning Kilborn of Santa Clara repeated the trick.

In the fourth Salesby, by a clever bunt, reached first, but the best Santa Clara man struck a foul which was caught and reached first just as Penton was taken out of the game because of a wrenched leg, and Scott was put in third. Owen in left field and Schofield substituted in right. In the eighth inning Santa Clara for the first time hit Witmer freely, but was unable to score till the very last, when Lappin scored a three-bagger and brought Smith home. Witmer up to this inning had been pitching professional ball, but seemed to tire in the eighth. Neither side was able to score in the ninth, Witmer holding his own with the veteran Kilborn. The lineup: Santa Clara. Position. Stanford. Kilborn (C).....Pitcher.....Witmer M. Schafer.....Catcher.....Rutledge Broderick.....First base.....Ball Watson.....Second base.....Bell A. Schafer.....Shortstop.....Sampson Foster.....Third base.....Scott Lappin.....Left field.....Scott Owen Salesby.....Center field.....Wirt Smith.....Right field.....Owen Schofield

ST. MARY'S COLLEGE TEAM TO PLAY CALIFORNIA NINE

What should prove an attractive game for baseball fans will be played on California field in Berkeley next Saturday when St. Mary's Phoenix team will line up against the varsity nine. Jordan is likely to do the pitching for the varsity team, while Hart and Burke will be in the points for the collegians. St. Mary's lost their last game to Stanford, but the collegians are rapidly coming around to their last year's form, and should be able to give to the varsity team a hard argument.

TRIBUNE'S SPORTING CALENDAR

- The University of California Basketball team will play the Pacific Union at Berkeley Saturday.
- Gunst Stakes will be run at Emeryville Race Track tomorrow.
- Reliance Athletic Club holds its monthly boxing show at Piedmont Park.
- Next Tuesday.

THE SULLIVAN TWINS AS THEY LOOKED WHEN THEY WERE BABES IN ARMS. THEY ARE AS LIKE AS THE GOLD DUST TWINS. SINCE GROWING TO MANHOOD THE TWINS HAVE MADE CONSIDERABLE RING HISTORY.

INDEPENDENTS WILL PLAY STANFORD NINE TOMORROW

Jake Thielman of Last Year's Cleveland Club May Do the Twirling for Professional Players.

BY T. P. MAGILLIGAN.

The Independents, an aggregation of crack ball players, are booked to play the Cardinal team at Stanford tomorrow. Jake Thielman, who pitched for the Cleveland team last year, may twirl for the Independents. In the line-up of the Independents are some of the best ball players on the coast and they should be able to give the 'varsity boys a hard run. The Independents will serve in Saturday's game as a very good prep for the 'varsity ball players.

Bill Cates, Oakland's best pitcher last year, is still waiting to hear from President Noyes of the Washington Club. Noyes is expected in Oakland shortly and when he arrives he will throw out the difference between Cates and the Washington Club.

There is very little doubt about what Cates intends to do. The Washington offer to him is a good one, and when Cates has had his talk with the Washington official the chances are that he will sign up immediately.

There is hardly anything left for Cates to do, but to go to Washington. Bill owns a nice little farm in Indiana and has said something about going there, but we have a rather strong idea that Cates would not be perverse enough to take up the plow and lay down his glove, especially when the wearing of the glove and the pitching of ball games means a salary of about $400 to the Greens Fork demon.

Cates should make good with Washington. There are a lot worse pitchers in the big league than Bill, and for him to do anything else than close with Noyes would be very foolish.

Nick Williams has not yet signed up to play with the San Francisco ball team, but Danny Long, who runs the affairs of that club declares that the holding-out tactics of Williams will avail him nothing. Williams, it is understood, has been dickered with by State League magnates, but that he will hardly join the outlaws is the opinion of most of his friends. The blonde terror wants the San Francisco management to come through with more money than they are willing to pay him. Manager Long says that he will not alter the contract.

At present Williams is on a quail hunt with Joe Nealon up near Petaluma. He will return to San Francisco in a few days and will probably close with the Seal management.

Most of Devereaux's intimate friends believe that he has already signed up with the Santa Cruz team, but the Red Dog will not go on record as to what he has done or even to intimate what he intends to do.

Devereaux's failure, however, to sign a contract up to date with the Oakland team is taken as an indication that he has already closed with the Sand Crabs. It is understood that the Surf City people have offered Devereaux an interest in a paying business at Santa Cruz, and besides have made him a salary offer that is far in excess of anything that he has ever been offered before.

If these reports are true there is small doubt that Devereaux will join Santa Cruz. President Cal Ewing of the Pacific Coast League has not announced his umpires for the coming season, but the chances are that they will be Fred Perrine and Homer Jack O'Connell. Both are good umpires and should they be signed the fans should find little to complain with in the matter of decisions this season.

Hurley Fights Loughery Draw

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Battling Hurley of Philadelphia and Young Loughery fought a fast and interesting six round mill at the Sharkey Athletic Club last night. Honors were even throughout the mill. The men fought hard from the start of the going, and the decision of a draw was well received by the crowd. Loughery used a straight left and in the fourth round he had Hurley bleeding freely. Hurley played for Loughery's stomach throughout the fight and had an even break throughout.

Plans Colored Baseball League

PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 14.—Negroes of this city have plans nearly completed for the organization of a national negro baseball league known as the Colored National League.

A meeting will be held here next week, and it is expected Charles F. Miller, Jr., will be chosen president and other officers elected.

It is to be an eight-club league, with teams in the following cities: Pittsburgh, Chicago, New York, Boston, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, St. Louis and Cleveland.

Young Players Injured in Game

Four juvenile ball players met with painful accidents in a game of ball here yesterday. The opposing teams were the St. Ignatius College nine and the Oakland High School boys. Earle and Menges of the Oakland team were spiked while Dordland of the St. Ignatius team had his leg hurt. Knight, a St. Ignatius player, had his leg badly hurt.

Longboat Wins Ten Mile Race

BOSTON, Feb. 14.—Tom Longboat, who is to represent the Dominion of Canada at the Olympic games in London next summer, won the ten mile race at the Park Square Coliseum last night. He defeated three runners who ran in relays against him. His time was fifty minutes and fifty-two and three-fifths seconds.

The men who ran against the Indian were Percy Sellen, holder of the Canadian five mile record; Claude E. Pierce, also of Canada, and William Cummings of Scotland. At the finish Longboat was two feet ahead of Pierce.

Longboat is now under suspension by the Amateur Athletic union, and under usual conditions would not be allowed to compete in the United States, but this difficulty was overcome by racing against Canadians and obtaining a permit from the Canadian Amateur Athletic association.

Grennan Secures His Preliminary

VALLEJO, Feb. 14.—Manager Charles Grennan of the Palm Athletic Club matched Jim Chas. and Mark Turner, two heavyweight negro boxers, to fight a ten round preliminary to the Burke-Willis contest, which is to be held in this city on the evening of the 26th.

Everhart Comes Back to Life

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 14.—Jack Everhart, who was at one time a candidate for lightweight champion, was given the decision in his ten round bout with Jack Graham of Kansas City here last night. The bout was a very tame affair and far from pleasing to the spectators.

Amateur Notes

The W. P. Fuller baseball team has organized a fast team for W. P. Fuller & Co., at Tenth and Alice streets. They have a good record and would like to play any team averaging 14 years of age.

The line-up is as follows: Smith, shortstop; Rowlands, third and first base; Cohn, third and first base; I. Cohen, left field; Gilbert, right field; Jones, pitcher and center field; Rosenberg, pitcher and center field; Bulski, second base; Markovits, catcher; Westover, shortstop.

All challenges can be gotten by addressing Maurice Markovits, 1050 Seventh Avenue, East Oakland.

The W. H. Hammonds base ball team, which made quite a reputation last season by their fast playing, will commence their 1908 season shortly. Most likely they start in under a new name, which will be announced in a few days. The management expects to retain all their last year's players except two or three, but their places will be filled with equally as fast if not faster men. Last year's team made a remarkable record by winning twenty-one games out of twenty-eight played, losing six and playing one tie game. Also winning the championship of Alameda county.

Ringer Is Used In Football Game

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—The executive committee of the California Football Association met last night, and made arrangements for the games that are yet to be played in the cup competition.

Last Sunday the Thistles and San Francisco teams played a game at Alameda, which resulted in a tie, but it has since been alleged that Brown, who played half back for the Thistle team, is a ringer. Whether this man was really Brown, or not Brown, is the question that the executive committee has up to it to solve.

Next Sunday there will be two games played in the cup competition. At Alameda the Scotias and the Burns will meet. L. G. Patterson has been appointed referee of this game and A. W. Wilding and W. Ramsey will act as linesmen. The gate committee will be Wood, Luby and Birdsall. At Freeman's Park the Independents and the Parnells will play. James Asham will referee this game and the linesmen will be William Canning and C. W. Irish. The gate committee is Fawcett, Fay and Taylor.

Santa Cruz May Go to Spokane

SANTA CRUZ, Feb. 14.—The Spokane basketball team, the champions of the Northwest, are anxious to have the Santa Cruz five journey up to that city for a game and as a guarantee of good faith have offered $300 to cover all expenses. The Albany five champions of Oregon have also sent good inducements for the local team to make the journey. If the Santa Cruzans can make the trip they will try and arrange it so that other games can be played. Next Tuesday night, the Muscatine team, the world's champions will play Santa Cruz.

Last Wednesday the Santa Cruz five defeated the Watsonville five by a score of 25 to 18.

Basketball Game Ends Up in Row

The basketball five of the Oakland High School was to have played the California College team Wednesday, but what was supposed to be a game wound up in a talk fest. The Amateur Athletic Union will have to settle the matter. The California College ladies refused to go into the game because all the Oakland players did not have Amateur Athletic League numbers on their cards. A letter was received from the president of the Amateur Athletic League saying that the defect could be overlooked as the league was short of cards. The Oakland boys went upon the court and won one goal. The referees then awarded them the game. The California College will protest the game.

Hornets Banquet Saturday Night

The Oakland Hornets Association Football team will hold their annual banquet at the Bay State restaurant, Stockton street, near Market, tomorrow evening at 8 p. m. Addresses will be made by prominent players and a night's entertainment is assured those who attend.

Coach Dan Murphy Is Getting Well

Jimmy Butler Beats Al Smith

ABERDEEN, Wash., Feb. 14.—Jimmy Butler of England defeated Al Smith of California in fifteen rounds here last night.

Varsity Five to Play Pacific U.

The varsity five and the team of the University of the Pacific will engage in a basketball game at Harmon Gymnasium next Saturday.

"I hear," said Mrs. Oldcastle, "that Miss Wadsworth has taken up the study of Gaelic." "Has she?" replied her hostess, as she tickled back a corner of the $3000 rug. "Joshua wanted me to take it up, but I never was no hand for it."—Chicago Record-Herald.

4 STRAIGHT HANDICAPS FOR SPEEDY FRED BENT

Dealy's Smart Gelding Easily Conquers Clever Field in the Antioch--Upsets Are Numerous.

BY LEE DEMIER.

Numerous and sundry form reversals, with only two choices to gladden the hearts of the large crowd of racing devotees, was the result of the clever program offered at Williams Park yesterday afternoon.

It was a large and unruly field of "hans beers," which lined up at the barrier in the opener. Emma G. was the like-warm choice, and nicely ridden by J. Carroll, went in the front when the others were triling and galloping away from her field. Prince Brutus had his usual speed and only faltered in the final strides. Laddom, after a rough trip, got up to be third.

Roulon, at the pleasing odds of 30 to 1, bent the gate in the two-year-old dash and in a twinkling all the day, though he swerved badly in the final furlong and just did manage to stuff off the determined bid of Laddom. With an even break the latter would have won. Bernard K. also suddenly came to life and outgamed Billy Eaton, the favorite, for the short end of the purse. The winner was THE TRIBUNE'S "Across the Board" bet.

Bardonia was a good horse, and when Butler let out a wrap, he came on and won the third race unopposed. Bill Curtis set a sizzling pace to the stretch, where his legs began to trouble him, and he retired to second place. Meade had all she could do to save the show. Elevation, the choice, made a very poor showing.

Fred Bent, certainly is in rare form, made it four straight by adding another handicap to his record, when he rolled home from a clever field in the Antioch, which was the choicest morsel on the card. The son of Farnley gelding was second choice to Roulon in the betting market, but stood the latter on head and won like an odds on choice. Massa easily saved the show.

"Red" Walker slipped a good one over in the fifth in Monaco Maid at 12.5. The winner was always right there, but was under a bad break. The money left her field as if they were tied and won the final event in a romp. Silver Sue closed readily and defeated the faint-hearted Seimora for second place.

Toby was the only horse scratched yesterday. Kirschbaum rode two winners—Fred Bent and Ruth W.

The ring lost a barrel of money on the win of Ruth W. Royal River was well backed by the contingent from the Middle West. Shoulders' mare had no excuses. String with this mare the next time out.

Roulon, Bardonia and Ruth W. were all numbered five on yesterday's card. Bettors didn't steal anything when they bet on the 5 to 5 they could about Elevation.

Hard luck story.—Owner Jack Keene bet $100 on the Santa Cruz five in the two-year-old race. When the race was over the young and polished Ken-Edonian was more than surprised to find Roulon at the head of the pack, with the race at the juicy price of 40 to 1. "Rosa tracing is mighty uncanny, Jack."

Prince Brutus was an overplayed horse as it didn't look 25 to 1 against his chances.

Dordom, the third in the first race, got away badly and had a rough journey.

Secretary A. H. London of the Hamilton Jockey Club has announced the conditions of the five stakes to be decided during the coming spring meeting and entries to which will close February 15th. They are the Elmer Derby, the Spring Brewery Handicap, Wentworth Place, Trickett Selling Stakes and Barton Steeplechase.

Thomas H. Williams, president of the New California Jockey Club, today purchased the contract on that clever pilot, Jockey Gilbert, for $10,000. The contract which formerly belonged to J. P. Clifford, calls for the lad's services for the next four years.

Jockey Russell is now doing the saddle work for J. J. McCafferty at New Orleans.

There was a killing made on the win of Cocksure at New Orleans the other day.

Pat Grogan, a kindly eccentric old soul and a good trainer, is dead. Long ago he trained for J. D. Patton and others of the colony of horse breeders and trainers who lived near the Alameda, the best horse men ever trained and he was good enough to go to the races anywhere. But Grogan trained many other horses of note in western training. He was sixty-two years of age.

A large crowd was present at Williams Park yesterday. The money market was more brisk.

Among the probable starters in the Gunst stakes Saturday are the following:

Horse	Owner
Little Jane	Blasingame Bros.
Patricia	W. E. Applegate
Reese Queen	H. T. Griffin
Trance	H. T. Griffin
Ornate	William Ducker
Achieve	S. C. Hildreth
Charlie Thatcher	J. D. Millin
Copitt	O. A. Bianchi
Seattle	Barney Schreiber
Minnie Bright	Barney Schreiber
Rubia Granda	T. H. Williams

Bookmaker Ben Snow was held up the other night in San Rafael while on his way home. All the hold-up man got was $2. Some years ago Snow was held up in Chicago, crossing the Twelfth street bridge in that city. This time the robbers were not so successful as Snow had had a bad day at the races. When the hold-up man searched the race track man all they found was a twenty-five cent Waterbury watch.

Roulon, the youngster that captured the baby race 21 odds of 40 to 1, was THE TRIBUNE'S bet across the board.

Roulon and Harry, first and second in the two-year-old race, were both sired by Hawkswick.

CLAIMS CRUELTY IN DIVORCE SUIT

Prominent Mining Man Accused of Too Great Fondness for Liquor.

Suit for divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty has been filed by Mrs. Helena F. Smith against Reuben H. Smith, a well known mining man. Too great a fondness for liquor is set forth by Mrs. Smith as the chief cause of trouble between herself and her husband. On one occasion, she alleges, he came home drunk and struck her in the chest. Smith has an income of $750 a month, his wife says. She asks the court to give her a suitable alimony. The following interlocutory decrees of divorce have been granted: Ida Lee Frank from Harry M. Frank; Frances O. Laydon from James A. Laydon; Mary E. Sargent from John C. Sargent.

Ex-City Official Shot and Killed

CRESTON, Ia., Feb. 14.—Nathan Z. Taylor, a former city official, was shot and killed in the rear of his confectionery store here last night. His body was found by his former wife. The sheriff and coroner can learn of no motive for the crime. Taylor, who was 45 years of age, has had domestic troubles, but there is nothing to connect them with the tragedy.

GIRL CHEMIST TO MAKE RARE GEMS ON STAGE

Sapphires and Rubies Manufactured in Theater to be Given Audience.

When a beautiful young woman steps out on the stage of the Oakland Orpheum next Sunday afternoon and proceeds to make rubies and sapphires in view of the crowd, later distributing the precious stones through the audience, there is likely to be a sensation such as has never been experienced by Orpheum devotees in all the series of thrills they have had in witnessing foreign vaudeville acts in the Twelfth street temple of vaudeville since its opening last September. Miss Alice Norton is the wonder-worker who is coming to Oakland to show her skill as a manufacturer of precious stones. She is a slip of a girl, a German chemist, deep in her science. Miss Norton claims that the stones she manufactures are as real and as precious as those which sparkle in the jeweler's window. She declares that the stones can be put to the severest test and will be found quite equal to any that nature ever produced. When the curtain goes up on Miss Norton's performance at the Orpheum next Sunday afternoon she will be discovered amidst a weird collection of crucibles and other scientific apparatus.

MISS ALICE NORTON.

tion of crucibles and other scientific apparatus.

Her Wonder Work.

She commences her performance by taking some common clay and placing it in one of the crucibles. Next she adds chromic acid in given quantities, which reduces the clay to a condition of thin mud. A powder is sprinkled into the crucible and at once a chemical reaction takes place, sparks of fire rise like a miniature Vesuvius in eruption and a temperature of 6000 Fahrenheit is set up. The heat being so intense and so vividly white that the eye only with difficulty can look at it. The diluted clay first boils, then bakes and in the space of three or four minutes it becomes a mass of quartz, which on being turned out of the crucible and cooled with water, requires, owing to its hardness, a heavy hammer to break it. In this product rubies of various sizes are found. Real rubies cut glass, and those which Miss Norton manufactures will do the same. For the production of sapphires a different composition is used. When the rubies and sapphires are cooled down they are distributed through the audience.

Miss Norton's most recent European engagement was at the Hippodrome in London, where she created an immense sensation.

"THE VIRGINIAN"

Western Drama Makes Its Appearance at Macdonough.

"The Virginian," which made its appearance at the Macdonough last night, is among the good Western plays so popular for the past few years, but it cannot be classified with that splendid drama, "The Squaw Man." Two rather stupid acts precede the main action, in which the intensity of action nerves actors to their best efforts and spectators to rigid attitudes. Whatever fault there was in last night's production must be placed in part on Owen Wister and Kirk La Shelle, who wrote the stage version of Wister's novel. The play opens with the dance and chattering of Uncle Horie's, where the numerous babies of the Western settlers are thoroughly shuffled by the Virginian and Honey Wiggins. Here an opportunity for good, legitimate comedy was somewhat neglected by authors and actors. The second act, in which the Virginian receives his "yes" from the Vermont schoolmarm and sees his friend Steve separate on a cattle-stealing career, is not particularly convincing, but in the third act all is changed.

Dramatic Act.

The scene is in a forest at a one-night camp of the cattle thieves. These are playing poker by candle light, while Trampas, the leader, wanders restlessly about. Later Steve and Sarsfield, Ed, two of the thieves, are captured by lynchmen under the Virginian, and then comes the struggle of the Virginian between friendship for Steve and duty. "We takes our medicine grateful," says Steve, dragging Spanish to death by the rope, while the heart-broken Virginian, who does his duty, clasps Steve's farewell gift, his revolver and belt, in his arms. The fourth act, with dramatic misty leads up to the duel between Trampas and the Virginian. These two last acts are all that could be desired and the actors do their parts in splendid shape. Frank Campeau, as Trampas, divides honors with W. S. Hart, the Virginian. In fact Campeau's acting is one more convincing of the two, for Hart's portrayal of the Virginian leaves the question, is he right in his interpretation? unanswered, or at least not satisfactorily answered. His stage presence is good, except for a missing step, unbecoming a six-footer. And while a man is in the hero business, why not supply him with a better pair of trousers? A man can't be much of a hero in ripped corduroys. Harry Holliday, as Uncle Horie, and Eleanor Wilton, as Mrs. Horie, were both good, as were G. A. Forbes as Steve, Frank Vall as Honey Wiggins and Charles R. Gilbert as Spanish Ed. Anne Meredith, the heroine, had so little to do that her ability as an actress could not be judged. "The Virginian" will be produced Saturday matinee and evening.

Posse Surrounds Indian Desperado

HELENA, Mont., Feb. 14.—Word was received here early today by Sheriff Shoenfeld that William Mosney, the Indian outlaw, who has eluded the officers for four months, has been completely surrounded in a thicket near Craig, this county. His pursuers are afraid to close in on the half-breed because of his reputation as a marksman. Deputy Sheriff May has started for the scene. Police officers of Helena believe that the Indian referred to is Standing White Man, a half-breed, who has been arrested several times lately for money.

Are You a Lard Eater?

Half the time when a person feels blue and out of sorts you may take it for granted that he is a victim of the "lard habit." Lard-cooked food and good stomachs are never friends for long. Lard food is not healthful food and no ordinary stomach can thoroughly digest it.

Lard comes from the pig-sty; Cottolene from the cotton fields of the Sunny South. Lard is greasy, indigestible, and sometimes absolutely harmful; Cottolene makes food digestible, nutritious, delicious. Cottolene is the perfect shortening and frying medium. It is pure and healthful. It contains not an ounce of hog-fat.

Cottolene is today in use by thousands of housewives who would no more think of going back to lard than they would of reverting to tallow dips for lighting their homes.

Cottolene is one of the products which pure food advocates always endorse.

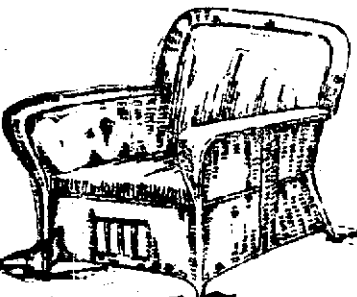

Nature's Gift from the Sunny South

We find that we have made more new styles for 1908 than we care to carry. We could sell them to dealers, but have decided to close them out at the factory at what they cost to make up.

You Save the Middleman's Profit

The styles are up to date and we have them in willow, rattan, paccarat and iccotan.
